

Bullitt East dominates Mercy in non-district battle

BY MIKE FARNER
SPORTS EDITOR

MOUNT WASHINGTON – After 13 seasons and 35 matches as combatants in the 24th District, Bullitt East and Mercy developed one of the best rivalries in girls' soccer in the area.

That all changed over the summer when Bullitt East completed a shift to the 23rd District.

Still, the two rivals have been the top two teams in the Sixth Region for the past few seasons and that appears to be the case again this season. That made Wednesday's regular season clash in Mount Washington 'must-see' for area fans.

When the final horn sounded, Bullitt East had a 5-0 victory and a firm grasp as the favorites when the Sixth Region Tournament rolls around in October.

The teams have met three times in a season numerous times including the last two seasons with Bullitt East winning a pair of Sixth Region titles. That cannot happen now as if they meet again this season it will have to be in the semifinals or championship match in the Sixth Region Tournament.

Even if it was not a district match, the contest had been circled on the calendar of many Bullitt East players since the schedule was announced back in the spring.

"For sure," Bullitt East senior Savannah Mooney said on the field after the Lady Chargers' win. "Mercy will always be a rival even if they are not in our district."

In those 35 meetings as district rivals (they never played each other before realignment put both in the 24th District starting with the 2012 season), Mercy had a 12-23 advantage. However, the Jaguars won the first 16 meetings before Bullitt East reeled off eight straight wins under head coach Steve Gentry (who was at the game on Wednesday).

This season, with all 11 starters back from the team that beat the Jaguars 3-2 in the Sixth Region final last season, Bullitt East is the better team. They made that point clear, scoring twice in the first half and then putting the game away in the second half. Mercy did not have a shot on goal in the game.

"We play a lot more as a team," Mooney said of the team's makeup this season. "We use everyone on the team. They all have a role and they all know their role."

The win over Mercy was the ninth in a row for Bullitt East over teams from Kentucky.

The Lady Charger offense revolves around Mooney as she plays an attacking midfield position. Just six minutes into the match on Wednesday, Mooney came forward to take a corner kick. From the left side, she hooked a shot over and around Mercy goalie Morgan Forsha. That allowed forward Anna Tinelli to come in from the far side and drill the ball into the back of the net.

With 10 minutes left in the first half, Mooney made a run down the left side as Tinelli moved the ball across the front of the goal and then passed it back to her teammate. Mooney made solid contact. Forsha got a hand on the ball over her head, but it hit the crossbar and deflected down and just over the line.

That score stood until the middle of the second half. Mooney took a corner that came down out in front of the goal. Sophomore Stella Williams collected the chance and then pushed it past the goalie.

In the final six minutes, Mooney put on a clinic. Twice she just dribbled past Mercy players and scored on mid-range shots.

First-year Lady Charger head coach Pete Kremzar has plenty of offensive weapons and that means that other teams cannot focus everything on Mooney.

"I think the key tonight was putting her in spots on the left side where she had some space," the coach said. "It
