Friends, I want to share with all of you some sweet inspirational stories that are taken from the internet link inspire21.com . Enjoy!

In his beautiful book, “I Shall Not Want,” Robert Ketchum tells of a Sunday School teacher who asked her group of children if anyone could quote the entire 23rd Psalm. A golden-haired, four-and-a-half-year-old girl was among those who raised their hands.

A bit skeptical, the teacher asked if she could really quote the entire psalm. The little girl came to the front of the room, faced the class, made a perky little bow, and said, “The Lord is my shepherd, that's all I want.” She bowed again and went and sat down. That may well be the greatest interpretation of the 23rd Psalm ever heard.

**All Preachers Here We Go****

We had a substitute preacher preaching at our church and he told this story. He said, when he was younger, he thought that the doxology went: “Praise God from whom all blessings go, Praise him all preachers here we go (instead of creatures here below), then praise him above the heavenly host, praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.” He said he thought that because, when everyone sang that, often the preacher leaves the pulpit and walks out!

Encouragement That Takes You Higher Church Humor

** Johnny's Dust ****

After church, Johnny tells his parents he has to go and talk to the minister right away. They agree, and the pastor greets the family.

“Pastor,” Johnny says, “I heard you say today that our bodies came from the dust.” “That's right, Johnny, I did,” he says. “And I heard you say that when we die, our bodies go back to dust.” “Yes, I'm glad you were listening,” the pastor replies. “Why do you ask?” “Well you better come over to our house right away and look under my bed, 'cause there's someone either comin' or goin'!”

** Red Wagon ****

It was the day after Christmas at a church in San Francisco. The pastor of the church was looking over the cradle when he noticed that the baby Jesus was missing from among the figures. Immediately he turned and went outside to look and saw a little boy with a red wagon, and in the wagon was the figure of the little infant, Jesus. He walked up to the boy and said, “Well, where did you get Him, my fine friend?” The little boy replied, “I got him from the church.” “And why did you take him?”

The boy said, “Well, about a week before Christmas I prayed to the little Lord Jesus and I told him if he would bring me a red wagon for Christmas I would give him a ride around the block in it.

** Pontius The Pilot ****

Terri asked her Sunday School class to draw pictures of their favorite bible stories. She was puzzled by Kyle's picture, which showed four people on an airplane. So, she asked him which story it was meant to represent.

“The flight to Egypt,” said Kyle. “I see... And that must be Mary, Joseph, and the Baby Jesus,” Ms. Terri said. “But who's the fourth person?” Kyle explained, “Oh, that's Pontius the Pilot!”

The Sunday School Teacher asked, “Now, Johnny, tell me frankly, do you say prayers before eating?” “No sir,” little Johnny replies, “I don't have to – my Mom is a good cook!”
