Lady Indians Sweep Casey County in Impressive Fashion

KEL It was a big night for the Adair County Lady Indians, as all three grade levels came ready to compete and delivered strong performances against Casey County.

The 6th-grade Lady Indians dominated from start to finish, shutting out Casey County 29-0 in a commanding victory.

The 7th grade followed with a solid 35-23 win, combining strong offense with a determined defensive effort to pull away from Casey County.

The 8th grade capped off the night with an exciting 59-52 victory. In a high-scoring battle, the Lady Indians stayed composed and found a way to secure the win.

With all three teams coming away victorious, it was a successful night for Adair County basketball.

Three teams. Three victories. One proud Lady Indians program.

Lady Indians Fall to Taylor County in Five-Set Thriller

KEL The Adair County Lady Indians battled Taylor County in a hard-fought five-set volleyball match, but ultimately fell 3-2 in a contest that came down to the final points.

Taylor County opened the match with a narrow 26-24 victory over Adair County. The Lady Indians responded in the second set, earning a 25-21 win to even the match at one set apiece.

Taylor County regained momentum in the third set, pulling away for a 25-13 victory. Adair County refused to back down, however, answering with a strong 25-21 win in the fourth set to force a decisive fifth set.

With the match hanging in the balance, both teams battled for every point in the final set. Taylor County managed to edge the Lady Indians 15-12, securing the 3-2 match victory.

Despite the loss, the Lady Indians showed plenty of fight throughout the five-set battle, battling back after falling behind and forcing Taylor County to earn every point on the way to the final-set victory.

Lady Indians Defeat Clinton County in Close Golf Match

KEL The Adair County Lady Indians golf team picked up another victory on the course, defeating Clinton County 228-234 in a closely contested match.

Adysen Wooley led the Lady Indians with a round of 50, followed by Braylynn Hargrove, who carded a 56. Adelyn McMinoway finished with a 60, while Brayleigh Hargrove posted a 62.

Ava Loy and Callee White each finished with a 64. Ellie Willis added a 69, while Emma Willis shot a 73 and Braylee Corbin finished with a 76.

The Lady Indians' consistent play across the lineup helped them secure a six-stroke victory over Clinton County.

Lady Indians Rally Past Thomas Nelson in Four-Set Victory

KEL The Adair County Lady Indians battled through a competitive four-set match Tuesday night, rallying after dropping the opening set to defeat Thomas Nelson 3-1.

Thomas Nelson took the first set 25-22, but Adair County answered with three straight victories, winning 25-22, 25-23 and 25-23 to complete the comeback.

The Lady Indians' offense was led by Josie Blair, who delivered a team-high 28 kills while hitting an impressive .370. Olivia Mantooth added 21 kills, while Raegann Stephens contributed six and Arianna Strode recorded three.

Adair County finished with 60 kills on 147 attacks, hitting .265 as a team.

At the service line, the Lady Indians recorded six aces. Mantooth, Maxie Blakey and Madi Burns each contributed two aces, while the team finished with a 93.8-percent serving percentage.

Defensively, Adair County recorded 63 digs, with Blair leading the way with 19. Mantooth added five digs, while Blakey had eight, Burns seven and Josie Cox six.

The Lady Indians also controlled the net with six total blocks. Blair led the blocking effort with two solo blocks and one block assist, while Mantooth and Strode each added two block assists.

The win showcased the Lady Indians' ability to respond under pressure. After surrendering the opening set, Adair County stayed composed and narrowly won each of the next three sets to secure the 3-1 victory over Thomas Nelson.

It was a hard-fought battle from beginning to end, but the Lady Indians found a way to finish strong and walk away with another impressive victory.

Lady Indians Sweep Russell County in Straight Sets

KEL The Adair County Lady Indians volleyball team continued its strong start to the season with a convincing 2-0 victory over Russell County, taking both sets by scores of 25-6 and 25-18.

Adair County came out firing in the opening set, overwhelming the Lady Lakers with aggressive attacks and consistent serving. The Lady Indians cruised to a 25-6 first-set victory, setting the tone for the remainder of the match.

Russell County battled back in the second set, but Adair County maintained control and closed out the match with a 25-18 win.

The Lady Indians finished the night with 31 kills, hitting an impressive .560 as a team. Junior Josie Blair led the offensive attack with 12 kills while hitting .733. Senior Olivia Mantooth added nine kills, while sophomore Arianna Strode recorded five kills and was a perfect 1.000 on her hitting percentage. Junior Raegann Stephens contributed four kills.

Adair County also received strong play at the service line, recording eight aces. Sophomore Josie Cox and senior Kylieanne Akin each recorded three aces, while senior Maxie Blakey added one.

Defensively, the Lady Indians recorded 23 digs, led by Blair with seven. Cox added two digs, while Mantooth finished with five and Blakey recorded four.

At the net, Adair County finished with six total blocks, including one block apiece from Blair, Mantooth, Blakey, Stephens, Strode and senior Anika Jennings.

The Lady Indians also turned in a strong performance in ball handling, recording 29 assists, with junior Madi Burns leading the way with 14 and Blakey adding 13.
