BUDGET CONTINUED FROM PAGE FOUR

every household nearly $300,000 and adds $7 billion a day, with interest payments larger than the defense budget,” Paul said. “My Six Penny Plan is the right step toward fiscal sanity.”

Paul said the size of the national debt requires Congress to take steps to reduce federal spending.

“Neither party has shown the spine to finish the job, but $40 trillion ought to be the moment they finally do,” he said.

The CBO has warned that the nation’s fiscal trajectory is unsustainable under current law. Its long-term projections show federal debt held by the public rising from 101% of gross domestic product in 2026 to 120% in 2036.
