Approximately 30 members and guests attended the Barren County Republican Women's Club meeting on Jan. 22 at the Barren County Economic Development Center.

Club President Barbara Pendleton called the meeting to order and led members through routine business. During the meeting, Pendleton proposed a change to the club's regular meeting schedule, requesting that meetings be moved to the third Thursday of each month. The motion was made, seconded, and approved by the membership.

As a result of the change, the club will not meet in February due to the annual Lincoln Day Dinner, which is scheduled for Feb. 28. Doors for the event will open at 5 p.m., and tickets may be purchased at the office of Barren County Judge-Executive Jamie Bewley Byrd.

The club's next regular meeting is set for March 19 at 6 p.m., with several candidates expected to attend and speak.

Following business, Pendleton introduced guest speaker Julie Jolly, Barren County

District Court Clerk. Jolly spoke to the group about the many responsibilities and daily duties of the District Court Clerk's office, offering insight into the role the office plays within the county court system.
