Cave City: Council updates E-bike ordinance

Regarding e-bikes and scooters, Council Member Andrew Bagshaw (right) made a motion to change the penalties to a three-step warning system so kids and parents have a chance to learn the rules.

KATRINA ENGLAND, Freelance Contributor

The City Council of Cave City met in regular session on Monday, November 9. Along with Mayor Dwayne Hatcher, all Council Members were in attendance, with the exception of Leticia Cline who was out of town.

GLASGOW, Ky. — Local veterans marched around the Glasgow Square on Veterans Day, then joined families and neighbors at Beula Nunn Park to remember those who had died since the community last gathered there a year ago. The Nov. 11 parade was part of a week of observances that reached from South Central Bank's breakfast tables to school gyms across Barren County.
