

The Scottsville Police Department reported three arrests in news releases dated November 4 and November 5, 2026. The arrests involved an Allen County warrant, failure to appear and a probation violation.

According to the department, the following individuals were arrested:

▪ Steven S. Thompson, 39, was arrested November 3, 2026, on an Allen County warrant.

▪ George C. Parris, 23, was arrested November 3, 2026, for failure to appear on an Allen County warrant.

▪ Jackie L. Mutter, 71, was arrested October 30, 2026, on a probation violation involving a felony offense.

No additional details concerning the circumstances of the arrests, bond amounts or scheduled court appearances were provided in the releases.

Allen County Sheriff's Department Reports

The Allen County Sheriff's Department reported several arrests and the execution of outstanding warrants involving drug offenses, assault, burglary, theft and failure to appear in court.

According to sheriff's department citations, the following individuals were arrested or served with warrants during late October and early November 2026.

▪ James L. King, 33, was arrested November 6 on an Allen County indictment warrant. Charges listed included no registration plates, failure to register transfer of a motor vehicle, failure to register transfer of a motor vehicle (second offense), criminal mischief, second degree; trafficking in methamphetamine, first degree; tampering with physical evidence; and no operator's or moped license.

▪ Richard V. Carver, 53, was arrested November 6 following a reported domestic disturbance on Brownsford Road. Carver was charged with assault, fourth degree (domestic violence), with no visible injury and menacing. According to the report, Carver allegedly became aggressive during the investigation, shouted at officers and attempted to provoke a physical confrontation. He was taken into custody and transported to the Allen County Detention Center.

▪ Jeffrey S. Gravil, 49, was arrested November 6 on an outstanding Warren County District Court warrant for failure to appear.

x▪ Susanna Eve Fisher, 48, was cited November 7 for improper display of registration plates. According to the report, the vehicle's license plate was improperly displayed on the back glass rather than in its required location.

▪ Whitney Maron, 48, was cited November 7 for no registration plates and operating a vehicle with an expired operator's license. The report stated that a vehicle was observed traveling on Old Gallatin Road without a visible registration plate. A citation was issued.

▪ Brian W. Dye was arrested November 8 following a single-vehicle accident on Pardue Road. According to the report, Dye allegedly drove a truck off the roadway and into a fence. He was charged with operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol, first offense, with an aggravating circumstance, and criminal mischief, first degree. The report stated that field sobriety testing was conducted and that Dye was transported to the Allen County Detention Center, where a breath test indicated a blood alcohol concentration of 0.130.

▪ Joseph Michael Valenzuela, 32, was arrested November 6 on an Allen County complaint warrant charging theft by deception involving cold checks.

▪ Thomas P. Dilley, 36, was arrested November 6 on an Allen County indictment warrant charging arson, second degree; violation of a Kentucky emergency protective order/ domestic violence order; and cruelty to animals, second degree. A separate Warren County District Court warrant charged Dilley with failure to appear.

▪ Kyle B. Allen, 35, was arrested November 7 on an Allen County indictment warrant charging possession of a controlled substance, first degree, first offense (methamphetamine), and possession of drug paraphernalia.

▪ David M. Savage, 38, was arrested November 6 on outstanding Allen County District Court warrants for failure to appear. The reports listed warrants involving both failure to appear and failure to comply.

The arrests and citations listed above are based on information contained in Allen County Sheriff's Department reports. Charges are allegations, and individuals are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty in court.

▪ Walter Harry Walterbury — Charged November 4 with first-degree possession of a controlled substance (methamphetamine), first-degree possession of a controlled substance (drug unspecified), third-degree possession of a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to the arrest citation, deputies responded to a report of a man exhibiting erratic behavior. Officers reported finding suspected controlled substances, drug paraphernalia and ammunition during the investigation.

The substances were seized as evidence, and Walterbury was lodged in the Allen County Detention Center.

▪ Daniel A. Turner — Charged November 4 with possession of a handgun by a convicted felon, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol, first offense, with an aggravating circumstance.

According to the citation, deputies responded to a report involving a vehicle in a roadway. The investigating officer reported observing signs of impairment and discovering a firearm. Turner was arrested and transported to the Allen County Detention Center.

▪ Seth T. Alford — Domestic violence arrest — A November 4 citation lists a charge of fourth-degree assault (domestic violence), minor injury. The officer reported responding to a domestic disturbance involving an individual who allegedly punched another person in the face. The suspect was arrested and transported to the Allen County Detention Center.

▪ Donald L. York — Arrested November 4 on an indictment warrant involving possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and persistent felony offender charges. The warrant was issued through Allen Circuit Court.

▪ Dustin M. Graves — Arrested November 4 on an indictment warrant charging third-degree burglary, theft by unlawful taking or disposition involving property valued between $1,000 and $10,000, and second-degree persistent felony offender status. The warrant originated in Allen Circuit Court.

▪ Steven L. Kelsey — Served November 5 with a Warren County bench warrant alleging nonpayment of court costs, fees or fines. The warrant originated in Warren District Court.

▪ Patrick W. Fannell — Served November 5 with a Monroe County warrant for failure to appear in court. The warrant was issued through Monroe District Court.

▪ Jaclynn D. Breedlove — Listed on two citations involving failure-to-appear warrants issued through Allen District Court. The citations indicate the warrants were executed November 5.

▪ Dale Wayne Taylor — Served November 2 with an Allen County bench warrant for failure to appear. The warrant was issued through Allen District Court.

▪ Brian D. Tomes — Arrested November 3 on an Allen Circuit Court indictment warrant charging first-degree rape, first-degree persistent felony offender status and second-degree persistent felony offender status, as listed in the citation.

▪ Joseph N. Carter— Arrested November 3 as a fugitive from another state. According to the citation, Carrett was wanted on an outstanding warrant from Tennessee.

▪ Timothy W. Graves — Served November 5 with an Allen Circuit Court indictment warrant charging first-degree trafficking in a controlled substance involving two grams or more of methamphetamine.

The charges and allegations listed in the sheriff's department reports are based on official citations and warrant information. An indictment is a formal accusation and does not constitute a conviction. All defendants are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty in court.

Allen County Grand Jury Returns Indictments Against 18 Individuals

An Allen County grand jury returned indictments against 18 individuals during the October 2026 term of Allen Circuit Court, Division I.

The indictments, presented in open court October 28, include charges involving drug trafficking, burglary, theft, sexual offenses, fleeing police, wanton endangerment and other alleged criminal activity.

Several defendants were also indicted as persistent felony offenders based on prior felony convictions. An indictment is a formal accusation and does not constitute a conviction. All defendants are presumed innocent unless proven guilty.

The following indictments were returned:

▪ Timothy Wayne Stinson, Scottsville, was indicted on charges of first-degree criminal mischief, harassment and menacing. The charges stem from an alleged incident July 11, 2026, involving damage to property and threatening or harassing conduct.

▪ James Michael Boyd, LaFayette, Tenn., was indicted on charges of second-degree burglary and third-degree terroristic threatening. The charges stem from an alleged incident August 17, 2026, involving unlawful entry into a dwelling and threats to commit a crime likely to result in death or serious physical injury.

▪ Brian Dewayne Tomes, Scottsville, was indicted on charges of first-degree rape, incest involving a person less than 18 years old and first-degree persistent felony offender. The indictment alleges offenses occurring in 2020 or 2021. The persistent felony offender charge cites a prior felony conviction.

▪ Steven Shaun Thompson, Scottsville, was indicted on charges of theft by unlawful taking or disposition of an automobile valued between $1,000 and $10,000, third-degree criminal trespass, operating on a suspended or revoked operator's license, failure of a non-owner operator to maintain required insurance and having no registration plate. The charges stem from an alleged incident August 11, 2026.

▪ Joshua D. Johnson, Westmoreland, Tenn., was indicted on charges of first-degree trafficking in a controlled substance involving two grams or more of methamphetamine, first offense; first-degree possession of a controlled substance involving hydrocodone, first offense; and prescription controlled substance not in a proper container. The alleged offenses occurred October 13, 2026.

▪ Timothy W. Graves, Scottsville, was indicted on a charge of first-degree trafficking in a controlled substance involving two grams or more of methamphetamine, first offense. The alleged offense occurred April 6, 2026.

▪ Stephen E. Jewell, Willisburg, Ky., was indicted on charges of third-degree burglary, theft by unlawful taking or disposition of property valued between $1,000 and $10,000, and first-degree persistent felony offender. The charges stem from an alleged incident July 14, 2026. The persistent felony offender charge cites a prior felony conviction.

▪ Stephen E. Jewell, Willisburg, Ky., was also indicted in a separate case on charges of third-degree burglary, theft by unlawful taking or disposition of property valued between $1,000 and $10,000, and first-degree persistent felony offender. These charges stem from an alleged incident April 8, 2026.

▪ Dustin Graves, Scottsville, was indicted on charges of third-degree burglary, theft by unlawful taking or disposition of property valued between $1,000 and $10,000, and second-degree persistent felony offender. The alleged offenses occurred July 14, 2026. The persistent felony offender charge cites a prior felony conviction.

▪ Dustin Graves, Scottsville, was also indicted in a separate case on charges of third-degree burglary, theft by unlawful taking or disposition of property valued between $1,000 and $10,000, and second-degree persistent felony offender. These charges stem from an alleged incident April 8, 2026.

▪ Donald G. York, Scottsville, was indicted on charges of possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and first-degree persistent felony offender. The firearm offense allegedly occurred October 13, 2026. The indictment cites prior felony convictions.

▪ Michael C. Caldwell II, Westmoreland, Tenn., was indicted on charges of first-degree fleeing or evading police in a motor vehicle, reckless driving, speeding 26 mph or more over the posted speed limit and second-degree persistent felony offender. The charges stem from an alleged incident September 24, 2026. The persistent felony offender charge cites a prior felony conviction.

▪ Kyle G. Smith, Adolphus, was indicted on charges of first-degree possession of a controlled substance involving methamphetamine, first offense, and possession of drug paraphernalia. The alleged offenses occurred September 21, 2026.

▪ Brent N. Gray, Scottsville, was indicted on charges of first-degree trafficking in a controlled substance involving two grams or more of methamphetamine, first offense, and second-degree persistent felony offender. The trafficking offense allegedly occurred March 29, 2026. The persistent felony offender charge cites a prior felony conviction.

▪ Terry A. Markhart, Scottsville, was indicted on

INDICTMENTS | CONTINUED ON PAGE 15

DON'T MISS OUT!

Get all your local news delivered to your home or online by subscribing to the Citizen-Times!

$34.95	$45.95	$59.95
In and Surrounding Counties	Out of County	Out of State

Offer valid for new and current subscribers with 2026 & 2027 expiration date only, per postal regulations.

Return this ad with your payment and we will start your subscription right away!

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

VISA MasterCard PayPal venmo DISCOVER NETWORK AMERICAN EXPRESS Cash App

Offer expires December 31, 2026

Stop by our office or mail payment and this form to:
Allen County Citizen-Times
PO Box 310 • 31 E. Maple St. Suite E, Scottsville, KY 42164
To pay by credit card call 270-237-3441