THIS WEEK IN LOCAL SPORTS:

-All signs indicate the Pulaski County Maroons are still a year away from reaching their full potential. But Friday night at PC Field, the 1996 Maroons kept making strides. Pulaski County fought off the stiff challenge of a game Cawood team, defeated the Trojans 33-24 and advanced to the Class AAA State Playoffs for the second consecutive season. "I think we're headed in the right direction," said PC coach John Cain, whose troops finished the regular season 5-5 and 3-3 in district play. ... Senior Kicker Andy Alsup booted a 32-yard field goal to put the Maroons on the board to cap the first series of the game, and then locked up the victory with a 27-yard field goal late in the fourth period. ... Sophomore running back Jonathan Purcell rambled for 228 yards and two touchdowns on just 11 carries in the triumph. His scores came on jaunts of 57 and 66 yards. Purcell's monster performance spurred a 408-yard rushing night for Pulaski County.
