

College Signing Day

Three Crittenden County High School student-athletes signed letters of intent Monday during a ceremony at Rocket Arena to participate in collegiate athletics starting this fall. Senior Anna Boone, a two-sport star, will take her basketball talents to Transylvania University in Lexington. She is the second-leading scorer in CCHS history and a multiple-year all-district and all-region performer. Pictured at top with Boone are her parents, Nathan and LeeAnna, and Lady Rocket coach Shannon Hodge. Pictured at right is senior Andrea Federico, flanked by her brother Anthony and mother Shannon. Behind her are travel coach Scott Alexander and Lady Rocket softball coach Chris Evans. Federico is No. 2 on the CCHS all-time home run and RBI lists and will be going to play at Dyersburg State in West Tennessee. Senior Gracie Orr is pictured at right alongside her father Josh, Lindsey Wilson cheer coach Damon Hicks and her mother Michele, who was also the CCHS cheer coach last season. Orr will join the LWU cheer-leading squad.

MY GOALS ARE TO:

- Improve transparency and the management of the County's funds.
- Build a better relationship with the jail and improve its operation.
- Improve the drainage maintenance and cold patch inventory at the road department.
- Update some of the ordinances and contracts of the County, like waste management.
- Make Crittenden County an attractive place for businesses to help with economic development.

Education: University of Kentucky, Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance & Business Management; Southern Illinois University-Carbondale, Master of Business Administration; Murray State University, Accounting.

VOTE AGENT CRITTENDEN COUNTY SHERIFF

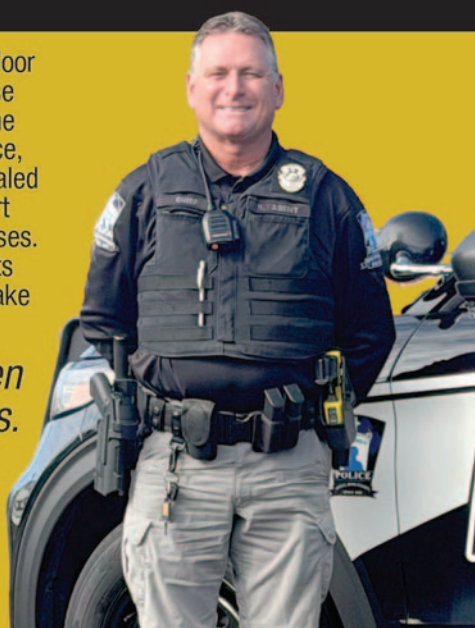

- ★ I will attract and maintain a strong, dependable team of deputies
- ★ I will support our school resource officers who keep our children safe
- ★ I will strengthen partnerships with surrounding police agencies to reduce crime
- ★ I will work to combat drugs to keep our children safe
- ★ I will treat everyone with fairness and respect
- ★ 27 Years of Law Enforcement Experience
- ★ Served as Providence Police Chief for 3 years
- ★ I have a deep respect for the office and a clear understanding of the responsibility it carries

As your Sheriff, I will maintain an open door policy and remain accessible - because listening matters. I fully understand the responsibilities that come with the office, including property tax collections, concealed carry permits, prisoner transport, court security, and court paper service processes. I have experience in managing budgets and will work with the fiscal court to make sound financial decisions.

Crittenden County has given me so much over the years.
