

Deaths

Brasher

Dennis W. "Denny" Brasher, 84, of Fredonia, died Saturday, May 16, 2026 at his home.

He was born Oct. 25, 1941 to the late Cecil and Edna Wring Brasher. He was a member of Fredonia Cumberland Presbyterian Church, where he dedicated his time to community services and helping others. He was also a valued member of the American Legion and the Lions Clubs International.

He found great joy in fishing, gardening, and caring for his yard, truly blessed with a green thumb. Above all, Brasher loved his wife dearly and treasured the life they shared. He will be remembered for his kindness, service, and love for family and community.

Survived are his loving wife of 30 years, Hannah May Brasher; two step-sons, Jamie McDowell and David McDowell, both of Fredonia; three step-grandchildren, Brynna, Ryan and Devin McDowell; five step-great-grandchildren, Ryder and Ryah Williams, Julius and Zane McDowell and Helena Stewart; several nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister, Dorothy Kunnecke; and a brother, Donald Brasher.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Morgan's Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Booker

It is with deep sadness that the family announces the passing of James (Jim) Booker, 88, of Hobart, Ind.

Booker died peacefully on Feb. 12, 2026. He was born in Crittenden County.

Surviving are a son, Randy Booker of Naples, Fla.; a daughter, Victoria Russo of Hoffman Estates, Ill.; and a son, Kevin Booker of Mundelein, Ill.; a sister, Joanne Winn of Fredonia; 13 grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Charlotte Booker; a daughter, Janalee Booker; his parents, Clinton and Dorothy Booker; and a sister, Judy Casebeer.

Booker retired from Inland Steel after 40 years of dedicated service. He was a handy mechanic who shared his knowledge with anyone who wanted to learn. Grandchildren and great-grandchildren remember hanging out in his shop where they hammered their first nail under his guidance, riding in the wagon behind his tractor or making a trip to Dairy Queen for a "cone of creme."

A graveside service for the interment of Jim and his beloved wife's ashes will be held at 1 p.m., Saturday, June 6 at Rowland Cemetery in Fredonia.

Memorial donations may be made to the Liverpool Baptist Church, P.O. Box 5274, Lake Station, IN 46405. Gilbert Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Moodie

Tanya Kaye Moodie, 83, formerly of Marion, died May 10, 2026 at Chautauqua Nursing Home in Owensboro.

She was born Oct. 27, 1942 in Marion and was the daughter of William and Evelyn Beshears, who preceded her in death, along with her brother William "Bil-ly" Beshears.

She had a love for all things fashionable and sparkly. She enjoyed reading, shopping, buying gifts for others, dressing up, traveling and Broadway musicals. Always keeping up with the latest beauty and fashion trends, she insisted on looking her best, especially when it came to her hair and makeup. Moodie had a true zest for life, coupled with sass and a strong will.

In her later years, she remained fiercely independent and never hesitated to speak her mind. Along the way, she formed special friendships with several caregivers who brought companionship and joy to her days. Mood-ie was especially grateful for the support and love shown to her by Faithful Friends Kentucky, a nursing home non-profit that connects volunteers with nursing home residents.

She also shared a close bond with Todd and Marla Carter and their children, Ryce and Riley, often telling others they were her adopted family.

She will be returned to Marion and laid to rest beside her parents and brother in Pleasant Hill Cemetery. No public services are planned.

Gilbert Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Glore

Victoria Dale Glore, 77, of Lola, died Tuesday, May 19, 2026 at Livingston Hospital and Healthcare Services.

She enjoyed reading, working in her flower garden, volunteering at the American Legion, and most of all she liked spending time with her grandkids and her dog Dexter.

Surviving are a son, Douglas Leon Glore Jr., of Lola; a daughter, Scarlett (Jamie) Hodge of Lola; two sisters, Rita Shekell of Ledbetter and Sandra Crowley of Ledbetter and honorary sister Mary Pugh of Marion; five grandchild-chapel of Boyd Funeral Directors and Cremation Services with Bro. Tim Fouts and Bro. Harry Lee Black officiating.

Burial will follow at Union Baptist Church Cemetery.

Friends may visit with the family from 5-8 p.m., Thursday, May 21 at the funeral home.
