Last week's article regarding the proposed property tax rate indicated that the school board would likely vote during the Sept. 22 regularly-scheduled board meeting; however, due to state guidelines with dates and deadlines for tax information, the Sept. 8 working session was rescheduled to Sept. 3, in order to meet the statutory guidelines. The board of education received the assessment data on July 27, and they are obligated to formally establish the tax rate within 45 days of receiving it; thus, the change in date of the working session. The Sept. 3 working session of the Crittenden County Board of Education, at which the formal vote of the tax rate will occur, is set for 5:30 p.m., in Rocket Arena Conference Room. Public comment is welcomed. (1t-36-c)
