him ‘let’s get to the 42, maybe a 60-yard field goal,’ He got me a couple extra yards, so kudos to him,” said Szmyt, who had his third field goal in the final 15 seconds since joining the Browns last season.

Cleveland has won eight straight Thursday night games, the longest active streak and fourth longest in NFL history. Four have come against the Steelers.

Pittsburgh (2-2) is 0-10 on the road against AFC North rivals on Thursdays.

Watson completed 24 of 33 passes for 268 yards with a touchdown and interception. He passed for 181 yards in the first half, his most since being traded by Houston to Cleveland in 2022.

“Happy for Deshaun. Not happy about the sack there at the end, but three straight fourth-quarter comebacks really cool for him and our team,” Browns coach Todd Monken said.

Rodgers, who was 22 of 40 for 299 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions, had one final chance to get the Steelers in field goal range, but he was picked off by Grant Delpit at the Browns 18 on a Hail Mary throw with 1 second left.

Pittsburgh’s Jaylen Warren rushed for 93 yards on 17 carries and DK Metcalf had five catches for 115 yards.

“I wouldn’t say it was our cleanest game all the way around,” Rodgers said. “They were getting after us on some of the long yardage stuff that we weren’t winning a bunch. I missed some throws I usually hit.”

The Browns defense got consistent pressure on Rodgers with five sacks and 10 quarterback hits.

kick down the middle to extend his streak of made field goals to 22.

this early in the season — there’s a lot of games left,” he said. “It’s about playing well on Saturdays and not letting that dictate how we play. We should play to our standard regardless.”

Stein wasn’t pleased with his team’s execution in the first half of a 45-21 win over South Alabama last Saturday, adding “there’s plenty of things to improve on.”

“It’s obviously great when you can win and coach these guys even harder,” he said. “I was pleased with their effort. Just the execution from play one to the last play has to be better moving forward. Were there great spots in the game that happened? Sure, but there were things early on that I thought that we can control that we did not. We’ll keep improving on that.”

South Carolina (2-2, 0-2) dropped a 49-18 decision s to No. 7 Alabama on Saturday in Tuscaloosa and will be without standout edge rusher Dylan Stewart after he threw a punch at a Crimson Tide player in the fourth quarter and was suspended for one game.

“Dylan Stewart’s egregious contact reflects behavior that is unacceptable and not aligned with the standards of the Southeastern Conference,” SEC Commissioner Greg Sankey said. “Such action against an opponent carries a serious risk of injury and has no place in our conference competition. This suspension is appropriate, and any future misconduct by Dylan Stewart will result in more severe disciplinary

Stein said Stewart’s absence on the opposite sideline won’t affect his team’s preparation.

“It really doesn’t do anything to us,” Stein said. “We control what we can, and Shane’s got to take care of his team just like I’ve got to take care of mine. We’re excited to play them regardless of who’s on the field.”

Stein recalled when Beamer was an assistant coach at Oklahoma and visited Lake Travis in Texas to recruit a player, when Stein was coaching high school at the time.

“I just felt like he was genuine; he was authentic,” Stein said. “He took the time for me, as a high school coach, to sit in my office and really talk about my players at Lake Travis. He knew other players within the district. He was able to talk football.

“It didn’t feel like he was in a rush to leave the school; he was just real. I’ve always had a ton of respect for Shane because of that. and then, I think he’s a really good football coach. He’s obviously been there for a while. He’s done a lot of really good things. He’s got a great team and great players.”
