

WKU BASEBALL

Tops fall 6-3 in regular-season finale

The Daily News

Western Kentucky's baseball team wrapped up the regular season with a 6-3 loss to Delaware on Saturday morning at Bob Hannah Stadium in Newark, Delaware.

Austin Haller started things off Saturday for WKU (29-26 overall, 14-16 Conference USA) with a five-pitch walk. Reid Howard was then hit by a pitch and Lane Arroyos moved both into scoring position with a groundball out. Camden Ross then logged an RBI groundout to score Haller and give WKU the lead in the first inning for the third time in as many games. Cael Frost stepped in and notched a double into right field to score Howard and extend the inning for a two-run lead.

The Blue Hens (19-35, 7-23 CUSA) scored two runs in the home half of the inning to even the score.

Western Kentucky freshman Ethan Reynolds awaits a pitch during Saturday's 6-3 loss to Delaware in Newark, Delaware.

Acosta got things going for the Hilltoppers in the second. Ethan Reynolds then on a full count recorded his first collegiate double to score Acosta and take the lead back at 3-2. A solo home run in the Delaware third evened the score at three all.

A two out RBI single for the Blue Hens in the sixth gave Delaware its first lead of the game.

The Blue Hens tacked on two in the seventh inning to extend their lead.

Dominic Monaco was Saturday's starting pitcher for WKU. Monaco allowed three runs (earned) on five hits with six strikeouts in three innings of work. For Monaco, his six strikeouts match his career.

Out of the bullpen, WKU used Zach Lyles, Sam Frizzi and Nathan Lawson.

Frost paced the WKU offense Saturday with a 3-for-3 game. He logged a double, an RBI and a walk in the effort.

Reynolds recorded his first collegiate double along with an RBI in the third inning. He finished up 1-for-4.

Acosta managed a 2-for-3 game with a run scored.

WKU will travel to Kennesaw, Georgia for the 2026 Conference USA Tournament. The first round of pool play is set for Wednesday.

The Hilltoppers earned the six seed and will play in Pool A. The 2026 edition of the tournament has a new format with nine teams in the field broken into three pools of three. As the No. 6 seed, the Hilltoppers are in Pool A with (1) Jacksonville State and (9) Middle Tennessee. WKU's first game will be against Middle Tennessee on Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. ET. The Hilltoppers will then take on Jacksonville State on Friday at 1:30 p.m. CT.

The winner of each pool along with a fourth wild card team (highest seed left with best record) will advance to a single elimination semifinal round on May 23. All games prior to the championship game will be streaming on ESPN+.

INSTRUCTIONS: Sudoku is a number placing puzzle based on a 9x9 grid with several given numbers. The object is to place the numbers 1 to 9 in the empty squares so that each row, each column and each 3x3 box contains the same number only once. The difficulty level of the King Classic Sudoku increases from Monday to Sunday.
