

LADY

keep the Lady Trojans off the board in the late going. On the offensive end of the ball, eighth grade standout Aliciah Cook led the Lady Panthers at the plate, finishing the day with a hard hit base knock. Pearlana Hoffines accounted for the Dawson Springs run. The Lady Panthers also displayed a patient eye against tough Lady Trojan pitching, as sophomore Katie Blanchard and junior Briley Sawyer each worked the count to draw a walk. Defensively, the Lady Panthers remained active throughout the six-inning contest, making the Lady Trojans earn every run on 10 total hits. The roster continues to gain valuable varsity experience, with underclassmen and middle school players filling key roles and contributing to the team's steady progress this spring.

The Lady Panthers will look to build on these individual successes as they move into their next stretch of the season. With the young battery of Scott, Spurlin, Sawyer, and Cook gaining confidence both in the circle and behind the plate in any given game this season. DSHS will be on the road to take on Christian Fellowship tonight, before a double header against Central on Tuesday.
