

Sayre Rolls Past Garrard County 6-0 in Girls Varsity Soccer

By Ted Cox

tcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

Sayre High School delivered a commanding performance last Tuesday evening, defeating Garrard County High School 6-0 in girls varsity soccer at the Sayre Athletic Complex Game Field in Lexington.

The victory improved Sayre's record to 11-2, while Garrard County moved to 6-4-2.

Sayre produced a balanced attack, with four players accounting for the team's six goals. Ella Jurgenson and Caroline Whitman each scored twice, while Clay LaMonica and Emmie Van Metre added one goal apiece.

Jurgenson finished with two goals and six total shots, making her one of Sayre's most productive attackers in the match. Whitman scored twice on four shots, while LaMonica and Van Metre each converted one of their two attempts. Quinn Cornelius and Hadley Luring were credited with one assist apiece.

Sayre recorded 16 shots overall and put 10 of them on goal, consistently testing Garrard County's goalkeepers. Claire Weaver and Bethany Sizemore split the goalkeeping duties for Garrard County. Weaver allowed three goals while making three saves, and Sizemore surrendered three goals while recording seven saves. Together, they made 10 saves against Sayre's attack.

Bluegrass United Defeats Garrard County 5-1 in Girls Varsity Soccer

By Ted Cox

Bluegrass United (KY home school) earned a decisive 5-1 victory over Garrard County High School in girls varsity soccer last Thursday evening at Garrard County High School Stadium in Lancaster.

The September 24 matchup, scheduled for 6:30 p.m., ended with Bluegrass United scoring five times while limiting the host Lady Lions to one goal. The result moved Bluegrass United's record to 3-3-1, while Garrard County stood at 6-5-2 following the loss.

Garrard County's Paisley Poynter, No. 5, accounted for the team's lone goal. According to the reported game statistics, Poynter recorded two shots in the contest.

Garrard County goalkeeper Claire Weaver, No. 0, faced sustained pressure from the Bluegrass United attack. Weaver finished with 14 saves while allowing five goals, producing a reported .737 save percentage. The goalkeeper's 14 saves indicate Bluegrass United generated considerably more scoring opportunities than the five goals reflected in the final score.

The game was played at Garrard County High School Stadium on Industry Road in Lancaster. Bluegrass United left the road contest with the four-goal victory, while Garrard County concluded the night with its fifth loss of the season.

Garrard County Blanks Campbellsville 5-0 on Senior Night

By Ted Cox

Garrard County High School's boys varsity soccer team earned a 5-0 victory over Campbellsville High School on Monday, Sept. 28, at Garrard County High School Stadium in Lancaster.

Lucas Wilson led the Garrard County attack with a three-goal performance, accounting for more than half of the Golden Lions' scoring. Stephen Morris and Jay Lear added one goal apiece as Garrard County produced five goals while keeping Campbellsville off the scoreboard.

Garrard County also received contributions from several players in creating its scoring opportunities. Issac Esquivel, Eli Gaffney, Austin Seagraves and Giles Shell each recorded an assist. Wilson finished with six points from his three goals, while Morris and Lear recorded two points apiece.

At the other end of the field, goalkeeper John Sizemore completed the shutout. Sizemore was credited with three saves and did not allow a goal, finishing with a 1.000 save percentage.

The result moved Garrard County to 4-11 on the season, while Campbellsville fell to 0-13.

Garrard County finished the match with five goals and four assists for 14 total offensive points. The combination of Wilson's hat trick and Sizemore's clean sheet provided the statistical highlights of a decisive home victory on Senior Night for the team.

Garrard County Golf Honors Four Seniors on Senior Night

Garrard County High School Golf Seniors Korbin Folger, John Kreinbring, Katie Sharp and Kylee Kobernick.

Kobernick and Sharp represented the Lady Lions.

Senior Night provided an opportunity for the Garrard County golf community to recognize the four golfers as they near the conclusion of their high school careers and celebrate the time they have spent representing their school on the course.

Congratulations to Folger, Kreinbring, Kobernick and Sharp on their Senior Night recognition and their contributions to Garrard County Golf.

Garrard County Golfer Korbin Folger Qualifies for Semi-State Round

By Ted Cox

tcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

Garrard Central High School golfer Korbin Folger has advanced to the next stage of postseason competition after qualifying for the Semi-State first round.

Folger earned his spot by shooting a 79 at the Regional 4 Tournament, according to an announcement from Garrard County Athletics. The performance secured his advancement from regional competition and extended his season into the Semi-State round.

The achievement marks a significant postseason milestone for Folger and the Garrard County High School boys golf program.

Folger was scheduled to compete Tuesday, Sept. 29, at Bardstown Country Club. The Semi-State competition will give him an opportunity to continue representing Garrard County against golfers who advanced through their respective regional tournaments.
