

God bless America

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance" (Psalm 33:12). These words were never truer than today. America again needs to recognize God and receive His blessings.

sion and chaos everywhere in our land.

One example in our nation today is how we feel about the sanctity of human life. In Decision magazine, which came today, Franklin Graham is writing about the Governor of Illinois signing a bill which would allow the killing of unborn children right up to the time of their birth. How can this happen in a so-called "civilized nation?"

One of the 10 commandments says, "Thou shalt not kill." How can we expect God to bless us when we kill so many innocent babies? Statistics easily found show over a million babies a year since 1973 have been aborted. Google "abortion" on your phone or computer, and your heart will break when you read of the innocent children whose lives have been taken.

It seemed like the commercial for the ASCPA lasted for two minutes on television the other day. They showed pictures of abused cats and dogs. Their appeal was for us to send 63 cents a day or $19 a month so they could save more animals. I'm all for pets. I've had them and they become a part of the family and I shed tears when Rusty had to be put to sleep because of cancer, but where are those who are speaking for innocent little babies? We seem to care more for our pets than we do for a living human being.

Pray for our leaders today that they will be able to have civilized conversation and not just name calling. We need leaders who can see beyond their own political party and do what is best for our country. Leaders willing to give and take. We used to have leaders who could reach across the aisle and work with the opposition.

People need to turn back to God. We need godly people. We have educated, talented, smart, athletic people.

Some of these are godly, but we need more. It is good when some of these speak out for God and spiritual things, for their influence goes a long way.

The only way for God to remember this country is for this country to remember God. God makes it very clear in His Word that when we are with Him He will be with us. But murder, stealing, graft, corruption is not the way for God to bless us. He said, "If my people will humble themselves, pray, seek my face, turn from their wicked ways then I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin and heal their land" (2 Chronicles 7:14).

God is ready. What about us? It starts with us. Like I said previously, draw a circle in the sand around you and pray for the revival to begin in the circle. It can happen. It has in the past. God is the same today.

Revival can come to this land. Lord, forgive us and bless us. Much we need Thy tender care! Amen!

Planning for the future

If I were to etch a passage on my father's headstone, it would probably be "Plan for the Future." He was always looking ahead, planning and saving. To his credit, he was known for his honesty and attended Mass each week. He was a good man.

What are we doing? Many of us live each day as if the words of Jesus were just guidelines. Jesus's words are definitely a guide to planning for the future here on Earth. But we need to give a lot of thought to the big picture: eternity. Think about it, in "eternity," you don't get up in the morning, or have a lunch break, or get off at the end of the day, or sleep at night. Eternity never stops; it is relentless, so we better choose wisely.

I told my wife that my recent trip to the dentist's office made me think. There were probably 8 zillion watts of light shining on my face, exposing every ugly little imperfection that I have accumulated over the years. She said the dentist probably thought, "Why are you fixing your teeth when the rest of your face is a mess?" Thanks, dear! But isn't this how our sins will be exposed in front of Jesus's brilliant light?

Set a plan for the future and save for the future. Jesus said for us to save our treasure in Heaven, not on Earth where moth and rust will destroy our work. In Revelation 3:16, "So, because you are lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of my mouth." We better make our whole being united to Jesus in Reconciliation, and the Eucharist, in preparation for the future and the bright light of our creator! Kumbaya! dale54@live.com.
