“He’s just a guy that’s always kept his head down and worked hard,” Jones said. “He’s real coachable, and has a great attitude ...”

He said not having Keown available has had a domino effect within the linemen ranks.

“It has hurt us up front for sure as he would have been a two-year starter,” Jones said. “He would have played a ton up front on defense and it made us thin on both sides. We have been intentional about creating additional depth up front on both sides of the ball.”

Keown didn’t start playing football until middle school and then continued a family tradition, he said, of playing for the Cougars.

“I was always a big kid and one of the tallest of the bunch and I was always told growing up, ‘You gotta play football,’” he said. His father, Brandon Keown, played for GCHS and graduated in 2003 and several family members also have played for the Cougars.

He said before the season his top goal wasn’t about his play, but about the team. He wanted Grayson County to return to the form of his freshmen and sophomore seasons when the Cougars combined for 19 wins before falling to a 4-7 mark last year.

He has been able to see that as the Cougars have rolled to a 3-0 start to the season, outscoring their opponents 123-20.

“What I’d like to really see is to just go back to winning,” he said.
