Penick speaks at Greensburg Rotary

By CLEVIS JEFFRIES R-H STAFF

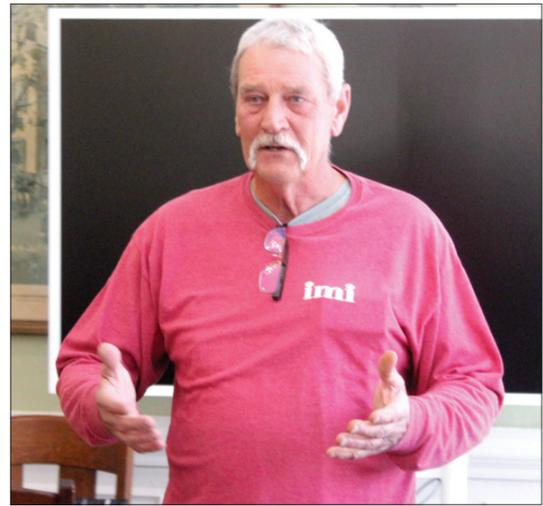

Board member Rick Penick, of Pierce Community Ministries, a faith-based drug and alcohol residential recovery program for men seeking freedom from addiction, was the guest speaker at Greensburg Rotary Tuesday, March 17.

Penick presented an overview of the ministries' purpose and its operation in helping those dealing with substance abuse.

Also, the ministry is involved in community charitable work and is accepting donations of new and gently used household items to help those in need.

One may donate items by contacting Pierce Community Ministries at 270-565-2882, Rick Penick at 270-299-6137, or Tony Corbin at 270-378-0395.
