Rumpke recognized as a Platinum US Best Managed Company

Rumpke Waste and Recycling was selected as a Platinum 2026 US Best Managed Company. Sponsored by Deloitte Private and The Wall Street Journal, the program recognizes outstanding U.S. private companies.

This is Rumpke's seventh time winning this distinction and the team couldn't be prouder.

"This achievement belongs to everyone working at Rumpke. Our employees work together as one team, persevere and put compliance, safety and caring for one another and our customers first," said Rumpke President and CEO Bill Rumpke Jr. "This is what makes our company so strong. Every day, we show up ready to solve problems, support each other and push to innovate and be better for our company and our customers. That's what makes this award possible."

The 2026 designees

are U.S. private companies that have demonstrated excellence in strategic planning and execution, a commitment to their people, as well as maintaining financial performance and governance. This year's class is making bold investments in digital transformation, including AI capabilities, and demonstrates the ability to drive sustainable growth and maintain resilience during times of volatility. Best Managed Companies are built on a foundation of trust and reflect a sense of purpose that fosters connections with their employees, customers and communities.

"The Platinum and Gold honorees exemplify what it takes to excel as a private enterprise," said Marlow Campos, US Best Managed Companies Program leader, Deloitte. "These organizations reflect long-term strategic planning supported by strong governance and culture that continues to evolve over time."

Applicants are evaluated and selected by a panel of external judges focused on assessing hallmarks of excellence in four key areas: strategy, ability to execute, corporate culture, and governance/financial performance. They join a global ecosystem of honorees from more than 44 countries recognized by the Best Managed Companies program.

James B. Haggin Hospital receives accreditation

Ephraim McDowell James B. Haggin Hospital and Ephraim McDowell Fort Logan Hospital and have been surveyed by the Center for Improvement in Healthcare Quality (CIHQ) and have successfully met the requirements for Hospital

Accreditation by demonstrating compliance with CIHQ Standards and the Conditions of Participation by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. This recognition reflects the hospitals' continuous commitment to safety and quality patient care.

Both critical access hospitals were subjected to a rigorous unannounced onsite assessment in May. The CIHQ team toured the hospitals, reviewed medical records, observed care practices, and interviewed staff and patients.

"CIHQ has changed the stereotype of what surveys are to so many in the healthcare industry," said Dr. Lynne Warner Lynne, Hospital Administrator at Ephraim McDowell James B.

Haggin Hospital and Ephraim McDowell Fort Logan Hospital.

"They used every opportunity to educate us on what we needed to do to correct or adjust. This survey felt more meaningful and productive than our past surveys."

Commonwealth Cancer Center of joins McDowell

Commonwealth Cancer Center of Somerset has joined the Ephraim McDowell Health system and will be called Ephraim McDowell Commonwealth Cancer Center—Somerset.

This transition ensures that the patients in the Somerset area continue to receive the same high-quality, compassionate care they trust and expect, now backed by a comprehensive health system known for providing exceptional care to the communities that it serves.

Ephraim McDowell Commonwealth Cancer Center—Somerset, will continue to be led by the dedicated team of Dr. Jennifer C. Torres Yee M.D. and Natalee Neikirk APRN, along with their current support staff.

"Our top priority has always been the health and well-being of our patients," says Dan McKay, president and CEO, Ephraim McDowell Health. "By bringing the Somerset center into our system, we strengthen our ability to provide exceptional service and advanced clinical support to cancer patients across the region."

This acquisition builds upon a longstanding partnership. Commonwealth Cancer Center in Danville became part of the Ephraim McDowell Health system in April of 2013 and has since served thousands of patients from central Kentucky. Additionally, the Cancer Center in Danville is Commission on Cancer

(COC) Accredited. The Somerset location will now benefit from the same system wide commitment to clinical standards and patient outcomes.

Ephraim McDowell Commonwealth Cancer Center—Somerset offers a full range of services for diagnosing and treating cancer and diseases of the blood.
