EXCITEMENT

on the local and national level, for the most part, cannot relate to international sports. Our baseball World Series and American football
Super Bowl create
excitement in-country,
but there is nothing
like the international
camaraderie and
joining of the world
like with the World Cup.

Later in the competition, Brazil
won its game. Several of the young people
I had gotten to know
came by the hotel
after our work day and
asked me to go on a
ride-along with them.
We rode around the city waving the green
and yellow Brazilian
flag.

Horns were honking,
and people were
cheering all over Vitoria, and I'm sure all over Brazil. I was a Brazilian for a day.

On our final Saturday
working on the church,

we were pouring a sidewalk. Brazil was playing Argentina that day.

Just before noon,
one of our Brazilian
concrete mixers
came to me, pointed to his watch, and
said, “football,
ciao.” Ciao (chow)
is goodbye! Nothing
took precedence over
watching the game.

Oh, if Christians could develop a small portion of that enthusiasm for the Gospel. The World Cup is coming in 2026
to eleven U.S. cities.

A mission field will exist as seldom seen.
Our orders are to
preach this gospel
(Matthew 28:18-20).
What a phenomenal opportunity! The projected attendance
would potentially
be up to ten million
international visitors
in the three designated countries.

Acts 1:8 “But ye shall receive power, after

that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye
shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem,
and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.”

The “uttermost” is coming to the western hemisphere and North America this year. Let's not waste this golden opportunity to share
Christ with the world.

We must always
teach that eternal
salvation is attained
by a faith-based belief (Ephesians 2:8) in Christ Jesus crucified (Matthew 27:35) for the remission of sin (1 John 1:9), resurrected (Matthew 28:6) and
ascended alive into Heaven (Acts 1:9).
