The Edmonton City Council met in regular session on Monday, February 2nd, at the Edmonton City Hall. Those in attendance were Mayor Doug Smith, Councilmembers Teresa Hamlett, Curt Estes, Faye Word, Tommy England, and City Attorney Brian Pack.

Others in attendance were City Clerk/ Administrator Dawn

Devore, Public Works Superintendent Moe Hensley, Police Chief David Robertson, 911 Director Jordan Crump, ABC Administrator Fred Ray, Park & Recreation Director Brian Garrett, and for the Herald-News PJ Martin.

The remodeling of the Edmonton City Hall has been completed. The employees will be using access cards to enter once the doors are all activated.

Two of the regular attendees were absent: Councilmember Cathy Nunn and Edmonton Fire Chief Jerry Clemmons.

The minutes from the last meeting held on January 5 were approved as written.

Ordinance Number 2025-26-004, creating a shift differential for the 911 dispatchers working night shift, was approved for its second reading after motions to approve were made by Beard and Hamlett.

The dispatchers working from 3 p.m. to 7 a.m. will receive a shift premium of $1 pers hour for regular hours and $1.5 for overtime hours.

Ordinance Number 2025-06-05 to raise the pay for the elected mayor to $30,000 per year, divided into 52-week installments effective January 1, 2027, was approved after motions were made by Beard and Estes.

Trump Rx: Will it Really Save You Money?

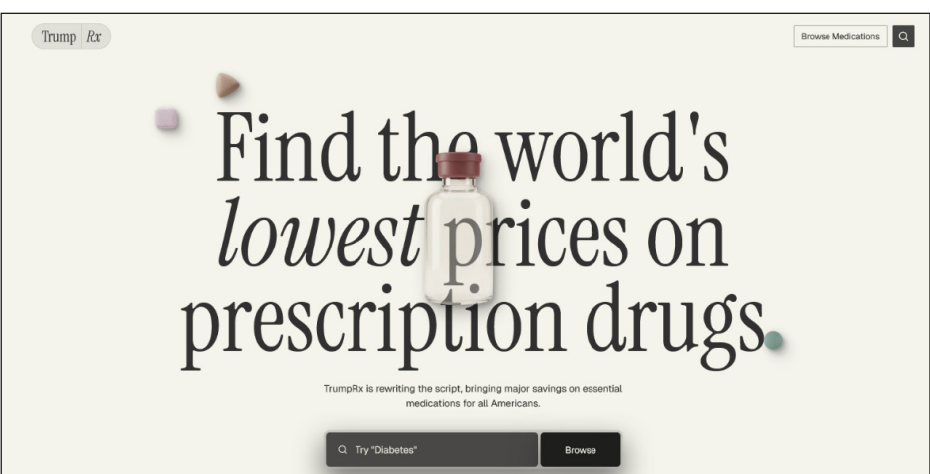

BY PJ MARTIN

EDITOR | THE HERALD-NEWS

On February 5, the Trump Rx website launched. The site has been promoted for months by President Donald Trump at every opportunity as the greatest option for prescription drug savings.

The site is a result of multiple healthcare initiatives and policies aimed at reducing prescription drug prices during President Donald Trump's presidency.

One of the greater initiatives was the proposed "Most Favored Nation" (MFN) clause, which aimed to ensure that Medicare pays no more for specific drugs than the lowest price that other countries pay. The policy intends to
