loss of school blood drives are driving the decline, which could put patient care at risk if not reversed.

The most important way to help end the blood shortage is to book an appointment to give blood now by using the Blood Donor App, visiting RedCrossBlood.org, or calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767). As a thank-you, all who come to give between July 13-31, 2026, will receive a Fandango Movie Ticket by email (up to a $15 ticket price and fees). Additional details can be found at RedCrossBlood.org/July.

Blood supply misconceptions

Every donation is critical to rebuilding the nation's blood supply, yet many people may not realize the significant impact a single donation can have on patients in need. A recent Red Cross survey revealed a significant gap between public perception and the reality of the nation's blood supply:

•Less than 1 in 5 respondents understood that blood cannot be stockpiled because it has a limited shelf life and must be continually replenished through volunteer donors.

•Only about half believed it was very likely that they or someone close to them would need blood one day — even though someone in the U.S. receives a blood transfusion every two seconds.

“A readily available blood supply serves as the backbone of modern medicine. Without it, lifesaving treatments and critical access points to care are not possible,” said Dr. Courtney Lawrence, medical director for the Red Cross. “Emergency departments, operating rooms, and labor and delivery units can’t support patients with the most urgent needs, and cancer patients must wait. We’re asking donors to give now before doctors are forced to make those difficult decisions.”

runs special programs for the kids. We are averaging right at 20 vendors every Friday. We’ve got some craft vendors and fruits and vegetables, and just about anything you can imagine.”

“So, you all come out and join us and see what it’s all about. Go ahead. Thank you.”

Gibson ended the morning. “We appreciate everyone. Diane’s Cakes and Catering. Kelly, we’re happy to have you here with your business. Bob, a big part of the community. Farmer’s Market, I love going there, and I don’t get to go often. But thank you all for being here today.”
