Although the Saturday events were not held this year, there were still shade tree pickers at the park.

The Sunday service was held at Branstetter Park on August 23rd, celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the park.

For those who missed it, here are a few photos of the weekend.

The Historic Bell House serves as a magnificent backdrop to the Georgetown Gentleman and the Edmonton Nine.

Submitted by Georgetown Gentlemen

After a season's opening match delayed time and again by the untoward weather, the Georgetown Gentlemen at last took the field this day, and did so in a manner calculated to gladden the heart of every lover of the national pastime. Upon the pleasant grounds of the Historic Bell

House, in the Red Lick community of Metcalfe County, the Gentlemen crossed bats with the newly organized Edmonton Nine, who were making their maiden appearance upon the base ball field.

The day proved exceedingly warm, though a kindly breeze

The Seeds Dolly Sowed

Like the wildflowers Dolly Parton sang about, Jason Larimore learned to grow beyond his circumstances, build his own dreams, and give back to others.

By Mary Beth Sallee
HART CO. NEWS-HERALD

"When a flower grows wild, it can always survive. Wildflowers don't care where they grow."

For Jason Larimore, those words were never simply lyrics to a Dolly Parton song. He carried them from Kentucky to Tennessee, Florida, California, Chicago, Ohio, Georgia, and Missouri. He carried them through difficult years, through uncertainty and
