CORRECTION

In last week's article concerning the incoming Houchens Food Group grocery, it was stated that the score was 59 of 75; that was incorrect. The correct score was 69 of 75. The audio at the meeting was not easy to understand; thus, a mistake was made. Thank you.

Fall Chamber Breakfast: Carhartt Business of the Quarter

By PJ Martin
EDITOR | THE HERALD-NEWS

The fall Edmonton-Metcalfe Chamber of Commerce breakfast was held at the new fairgrounds building last Tuesday morning. After the Chamber President Gina Gibson welcomed everyone, Tina Wilson of Wilsons Bookkeeping gave the invocation.

Gibson then announced the Business of the Quarter as Carhartt and presented the award to Ginger Stephens, who thanked everyone and told the crowd about Carhartt.

was celebrating its 100th anniversary.”

Carhartt has been part of the community for 37 years. They currently employ around 125 people from Metcalfe and surrounding counties.

In Edmonton, early production focused on work jackets and coats, and in the 90s added hunting and outdoor wear, all geared toward the working person. They value hard work, honesty, and “Made in the USA”.

In 2025, they began producing T-shirts and sweatshirts for the Carhartt Crafted Series that features a seasonal collection and a few year-round items. They are currently in the third phase of the Crafted Series on Carhartt.com.

CMC Metcalfe is available to help seniors, disabled adults, and oncology patients.

By PJ Martin
EDITOR | THE HERALD-NEWS

For some residents, the cost of medications, transportation, and other health care needs can create barriers to receiving necessary medical care.

Community Medical Care (CMC), a program of the T.J. Community Mission Foundation, offers help to qualifying residents in Barren, Metcalfe, and Adair counties through programs designed to help seniors, working adults, disabled adults,
