2020, a few months after Karnisovas and Eversley got their jobs.

Chicago's lone playoff appearance since all three were hired came during the 2021-22 season, when it finished sixth in the Eastern Conference at 46-36 and got knocked out by Milwaukee in the first round. The Bulls lost in the play-in tournament the next three years.

Donovan got a contract extension last offseason. Reinsdorf said after firing Karnisovas and Eversley that the problem was the roster construction — not the coach.

Bulls owner Jerry Reinsdorf, Michael's father, praised Donovan for the "class and genuine care" that he brought to the organization.

"We wanted Billy to continue as our head coach — that was never in question," Jerry Reinsdorf said. "But through honest conversations, we all agreed that giving our new head of basketball operations the right to build out his staff was the most important thing for the future of this franchise. That is the kind of person Billy is — he put the Bulls first."

Karnisovas' inability to land a franchise cornerstone player and refusal to give the Bulls a better shot at the No. 1 pick by rebuilding were glaring. He finally changed course before this year's trade deadline, dealing Nikola Vucevic to Boston, Kevin Huerter to Detroit, Coby White to Charlotte and Chicago product Ayo Dosunmu to Minnesota. The Bulls loaded up on second-round draft picks and did not get any first-rounders in return.

One of the players Chicago got in return was Jaden Ivey from Detroit. Chicago waived him following anti-LGBTQ+ comments about religion he made in videos posted on his Instagram account.

RBI. Ellie Branson also posted an RBI.

HOPKINS CENT. 9 LADY TROJANS 5

Hopkins County Central broke a 5-5 tie with four runs in the top of the seventh inning Saturday, then got a double play to end the Lady Trojans' chance in the home half for the 9-5 win in Dixon.

Layla Scott went 3-for-3 with an RBI and two runs scored. She doubled twice.

Natalie Eversole finished 2-for-2 with an RBI and a run scored, while Alyssa Cartwright went 2-for-3 with one driven in. Ellie Branson drove in a run and scored once in a 1-for-3 outing.

Branson and Eversole both hit doubles.

Eversole suffered the loss, giving up six runs (two earned) on 12 hits and six walks. She struck out seven.

LADY TROJANS 0 HENDERSON CO. 13

Henderson County's Lilly Bennett threw a one-hit shutout against Webster County on Monday, striking out seven in Henderson.

Alyssa Cartwright collected the lone base knock of the Lady Trojans.

The Lady Colonels exploded for nine runs in the second inning, then added one in the third and three in the fourth to force the run-rule.

Layla Scott suffered the loss for Webster, giving up eight runs (three earned) on five hits and a walk over 1 • innings.

WCHS enters the second half of the season at 8-12.

The Lady Trojans were scheduled to host University Heights Academy for a double header Tuesday. They will travel to Union County tonight and host Dawson Springs Friday.

Saturday will feature a triangle with Murray and Mayfield in Dixon. Henderson County visits Monday and Fort Campbell Tuesday.

Each quilt will get a number once it goes on display at the community center. From 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., Rhea stated that the community will be invited to view the quilts free of charge, and to also vote on their favorites.

"There are monetary values for first, second and third place," Rhea stated.

The Historical Society is donating the money, but are still working on how much each prize will be. Quilts will be ready to go back to their original owners that afternoon.

Rhea is learning all about quilts in anticipation of the event, including the different types of processes used to put quilts together.

"A quilts can be hand pieced or machine pieced, antique, cross stitched, wall hanging, and even a friendship style quilt," she explained.

No limit is placed on the number of entries one can place into the show, and Rhea hopes that each type is represented.

"These are treasures," she commented.
