UHA

the Blazers didn't let the Colonels breathe. In the very next half-inning, Jackson Flynn crushed a solo home run over the fence, instantly pushing the lead to 8-1 and shifting any bit of momentum right back to the UHA dugout.

While the bats did their job, the night really belonged to the execution on the mound. The Blazers' pitching staff was dialed in from the first pitch, living in the strike zone and keeping County hitters off-balance. They allowed just five hits, struck out four, and walked only one batter in a super-efficient 70-pitch performance.

It was a tough night for the Christian County pitching staff, which struggled with control after giving up just two combined runs in their first two tournament games. The Colonels gave up eight walks, hit four batters, and threw three wild pitches, making it tough to mount any kind of defensive stand. Blake Boehman and Layton Creamer both smacked doubles in the loss, but the Colonels just couldn't bring enough base hits together to close the gap.

The loss ends Christian County's season at 22-17, and it carries some heavy emotional weight. This was the final baseball game in the history of the standalone Christian County High School program, a powerhouse that won 14 regional titles and the 2004 state championship, before consolidating into the new Christian County Tiger program next school year.

But the night belonged to UHA. The Blazers (29-8) are now heading to the KHSAA State Baseball Tournament next Thursday at Legends Field in Lexington, where they will square off against the 14th Region champion. After years of knocking on the door, the Blazers finally walked through it.
