

LADY

The Lady Tigers kept that same energy rolling right into set three. Behind tough, flat serves, Christian County jumped ahead 11-4. Crittenden County simply couldn't get anything through the roof, as Taylor Cantrell went up with Taggart and Riley Lambert to send attacks right back to the floor. Cantrell put down another block to extend the margin to 21-6, and Christian County cruised to a 25-10 win.

Set four was pure cruise control. The Lady Tigers kept Crittenden County in single digits, closing the match out with a 25-8 runaway to capture win No. 21 on the year.

Taggart stuffed the stat sheet with 16 kills, eight total blocks, and seven digs. Cantrell delivered eight kills and five blocks at the net, Lambert recorded six kills, and Armstrong chipped in five kills alongside five blocks.

Brown dished out 30 assists to go with four aces and seven digs. Peyton Owens anchored the back row with 29 digs, while Cook and Katherine Wood each picked up 10 digs and three aces.
