

WORK

Mark 15 and Matthew 27 report the same, but Matthew shares one tidbit I had previously missed.

Verses 59-60 say, "Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock." HE had cut out of the rock. Joseph, himself, had cut the tomb out of the rock.

The Life Application Study

Bible comments: "The tomb where Jesus was laid was probably a man-made cave out of one of the many limestone hills in the area. These caves were often large enough to walk into." Talk about a big job. How many hours/days would that have taken?

There were surely times throughout his chiseling when Joseph got bored or aggravated; it must have seemed never ending. Still, he kept going. Did he sing while he worked to pass the time or groan with frustration?

It was Joseph's taking-forever task. God used the time he invested for something important.

Are you serving in a hard place that seems to have no visible results? Are you planting and watering but haven't seen a harvest? Is there a prayer you have been praying that seems unanswered? Keep chiseling. Keep working. Keep praying. Keep going. Don't quit.

Joseph finished the tomb. It stood empty, waiting for the moment it would be used.

Jesus inhabited it for a short time. He walked out of it three days later. And we haven't stopped talking about it!

We can't celebrate the Resurrection without the tomb. We wouldn't have the tomb without the hard work of Joseph behind the scenes. Thank you, Joseph, for your ministry to our precious

Savior.
