

Oweh joins other UK alum on Oklahoma City's roster

KENTUCKY TODAY

LEXINGTON — Kentucky guard Otega Oweh will begin his professional career in Oklahoma City.

Oweh was chosen in the second round as the 41st overall pick by the Miami Heat in the NBA Draft on Wednesday night but was then traded to the Thunder, where he will join former Kentucky standouts Shai Gilgeous-Alexander and Casson Wallace.

The Thunder captured the NBA title in 2025, a first for the franchise.

Oweh became the program's 147th draft selection and it marked the 19th straight season a Kentucky player has been selected in the annual draft. He became the fourth player selected under Coach Mark Pope, joining Jayden Quaintance, Koby Brea and Amari Williams.

During his two-year career at Kentucky, Oweh scored 1,255 points, surpassing Bill Spivey for the most points scored by a player in two seasons. Oweh scored double figures in 68 of 72 games and averaged 17.4 points, 4.7 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game.

Oweh was the Southeastern Conference Player of the Year in 2025 and was an All-SEC performer in both seasons with the Wildcats. He scored a career-high 35 points, including a halfcourt shot that sent the game into overtime in an NCAA Tournament win over Santa Clara last March. He also added eight rebounds and seven assists, the first 35-8-7 performance since Larry Bird accomplished the rare feat in the Big Dance in 1979.

"Otega's interesting because you just keep asking more from him," Pope said last season. "His career here, with what he's contributed to the two teams he's been a part of, is just, it really is remarkable. And his growth has been remarkable.

"Sometimes you think about the consistency, some of the markers that show his consistency, but within that, you've just seen this incredible growth because his role has changed so dramatically. And so to stay as consistent as he's been with such a dramatically changing role is really incredible.

UK FIRST ROUNDER

Jayden Quaintance became Pope's first opening-round NBA Draft pick Tuesday night.

Quaintance was selected 20th overall by the San Antonio Spurs and will join former Kentucky standouts De'Aaron Fox and Keldon Johnson.

During his short time at UK, Quaintance battled knee injuries and appeared in just four games. He scored 10 points, grabbed eight rebounds and blocked a pair of shots in his debut in a win over St. John's in the CBS Sports Classic last December.

Quaintance averaged 5 points per game for the Wildcats. He also appeared in games against Belarmine, Alabama and Missouri before swelling in his injured knee forced Quaintance to miss the remainder of the season.

Prior to transferring to Kentucky, Quaintance started 24 games at Arizona State as a freshman and averaged 9.4 points and 7.9 rebounds a game. He was an All-Big 12 Freshman team performer and set the school record for blocked shots in a season with 63 and recorded 7.9 rebounds per contest.

Despite his history of injuries, Spurs General Manager Brian Wright is confident Quaintance will rebound and be cautious about his future development.

"He came in and visited, so you know our doctors have spent some time, but we'll get the people much smarter than us to take a look and come up with the best plan for him, and if that is the best plan for him, then we will do that and take a very long-term approach," Wright said. "He's got tremendous, tremendous talent and unfortunately that was cut short a little bit due to injury."

2015 following Brown's first-round selection Tuesday night.

Louisville has had 79 NBA Draft picks in the program's history, with 20 players playing in the NBA in the last 11 years.

Conwell led Louisville in scoring with an average of 18.8 points per game, shooting 40.8% from the floor and 34.5% from the arc. The second team All-ACC selection appeared and started in 34 games for the Cardinals.

The Indianapolis native finished the season sixth in the league in scoring, 10th in free throw percentage and eighth in 3-point field goal percentage. He pulled down 4.8 boards per game to go along with 2.7 assists per outing.
