PUBLIC NOTICE
 The U.S. Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration (EDA) is considering a request for Federal assistance from the Muhlenberg County Fiscal Court to renovate the West Kentucky Regional Technical Training Center located at 200 Pritchett Drive in Greenville, Muhlenberg County, Kentucky. Pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) and the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA), EDA is conducting an assessment of the potential of the proposed project to affect the environment and/or historic properties. Notice is hereby given that the project is proposed to be located in, or may affect, a floodplain and/or wetland as defined by Executive Order (EO) 11988 and/or EO 11990.
 The project proposes to renovate and expand the West Kentucky Regional Technical Training Center (WKRTTC) at 200 Pritchett Drive, Greenville, Kentucky, by repurposing the former South Muhlenberg Middle School into an expanded regional technical training facility. The existing building contains approximately 65,000 square feet, of which approximately 43,000 square feet of teaching and training areas will be renovated to support high-demand workforce training programs. The project also includes the purchase and installation of specialized technical training equipment needed to operate WKRTTC and deliver hands-on training in advanced manufacturing, welding, HVAC, machine tool/CNC, electrical, digital manufacturing, and classroom technology. Project information is available for review at the Pennyriple Area Development District, 300 Hammond Drive, Hopkinsville, Kentucky, 42240.
 If you have any information regarding potential impacts to historic properties or environmental resources including wetlands or floodplains associated with this proposed project, please provide any comments by email to ATRO-REO@eda.gov.
 Comments received by 4:00PM CDT/5:00PM EDT on July 9, 2026 will be considered. A copy of the NEPA/NHPA decisional document will be available upon request at the EDA Atlanta Regional Office. 6-9c

Muhlenberg County Public Library and Central City Tourism hosted an outdoor movie night at Lu-Ray Park on Friday, June 5, 2026. It was a perfect night for an outdoor movie, concessions were available and if the kids got bored with the movie... there were kids playing tag and catching lightening bugs within eye sight. Fun for the whole family! (Leader-News Photo/Lisa Sullivan)
