Warrior of the Week

Every Wednesday, the Warrior Ridge non-profit organization selects one veteran to celebrate and honor for their services. Brandon Bishop was selected to be Warrior of the Week for July 1 through 7.

Brandon has been in service of our country for 20 years! He is a Purple Heart Recipient and a third generation soldier.

Brandon, thank you for your resilience, bravery, and courage. We are so honored to have you as our Warrior of the Week.

Brandon was nominated by Teresa Bishop. Sergeant Daniel Sustin was selected to be Warrior of the Week for July 8 through 14.

Sgt. Daniel Sustin served in our US Army from 1991 to 1995 in the 1st Battalion/ 75th Ranger Regiment. Dan is now the Director of Training for Ohio Union Carpenters and is a huge Warrior Ridge supporter! His friends often describe him with one single word: Bad.

Daniel, we are so honored to have you as our Warrior of the Week! Thank you for your service, bravery, friendship, and support.

To nominate someone for Warrior of the Week, submit them at https://www.warriorridge.org/warrior-of-the-week/.
