Ralph Stanley II & Clinch Mountain Boys return for Years of Farming

By Paula Hinton

Years of Farming is excited to welcome Ralph Stanley II and the Clinch Mountain Boys back for the 11th time to Years of Farming on Sunday, February 15, at 2:00 p.m. at Double S Entertainment, 150 Foster Street, Flemingsburg.

Timber and Nails will open.

This will be our 117th show!

Tickets are $20 available in advance or at the door. Children 12 and under accompanied by an adult are admitted free.

Attendees will have the chance to win door prizes provided by our sponsors including two tickets to the March 8 show featuring Don Rigsby with Mountain Music Ambassadors opening.

Ralph Stanley II and The Clinch Mountain Boys are celebrating 80 years of legacy in bluegrass music.

The Grammy Award-winning artist and his band have been touring across the country, sharing their traditional bluegrass sound with fans.

Timber & Nails formed by chance in early 2015 when John Lewis brought together a few of his friends to play at a local benefit show.

Timber and Nails includes John Lewis - banjo & vocals, Adam Ison - guitar & vocals, Reggie Dickerson – bass & vocals, Dewey Smith – mandolin, Anthony Gilliam - guitar/ bass, vocals, and Cindy Clevenger – vocals. “Playing at Years of Farming is always a favorite venue. We also love visiting churches and ministering in song. We are truly blessed to be able to do this work for the Lord.”

We hope you will join us at Years of Farming for an afternoon of awesome bluegrass music. It is a terrific opportunity to see this caliber of artists in our area.

If you are not familiar with any of our bands, whether a feature band or an opening band, check their websites and/or YouTube for some of their music and history and you will want to attend!

Years of Farming’s goal is not only to provide bluegrass music in our area, but also to promote our local businesses.

Please take the time to thank our sponsors for helping us bring great bluegrass music to the area.

Keep checking our website www.yearsof-farming.com for updates on our schedule.

Tickets are available on our website or at the door.

Notice of Hearing on Application for Permit to Operate A Place of Entertainment

Please take notice that on January 30, 2026, an Application for Permit to Operate a Place of Entertainment was filed by Marcus Pearce and George Riffe. The application seeks a permit to operate a business known as Riffel's Camp & Float Adventures. The primary purpose of the business is to provide recreational activities on Kinniconick Creek.

The location of the proposed business is 9259 KY 59, Vanceburg, in Lewis County, Kentucky.

KRS 231.080 requires that a hearing be held after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date on which the application is filed. The hearing will be conducted by the Lewis County Judge/Executive on March 2, 2026, at 3:00 p.m. at the Fiscal Court meeting room, on the third floor of the Lewis County Courthouse, located at 112 Second Street, Vanceburg, Kentucky. At the hearing, the County Judge/Executive will hear evidence in support of or in opposition to the granting of the permit.

Pursuant to KRS 231.080, any person desiring to oppose the permit shall have filed in writing allegations that show cause as to why the application should not be granted. Said written allegations shall be filed in the office of the County Judge Executive, Second Floor, Lewis County Courthouse, prior to 3:00 p.m. on March 2, 2026.
