Treasures by Wilma Erwin

Can you imagine heaven, where Almighty God, the Lord Jesus, the Holy Ghost, and angels dwell? Can you picture Michael the Archangel defending the Lamb's Book of Life, the books of the Bible, and the record books of heaven? Do you picture Gabriel and ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands of angels, as John described in Revelation 5:11?

Picture the holiness of being in God's domain—His home, if you will.

Now, ask yourself, "Will this holy God welcome sin into His New Heaven, New Earth, New Jerusalem, and New Eternal Kingdom?"

Is there ANY indication in the Bible that God will welcome sin? No. God forbid.

So, if Satan and sin are your companions, do not plan for eternity in the God of the Bible's promised heaven. You must repent, let Jesus' blood wash the sin away, and live converted to a life with Christ as your Lord, or do not plan on being in God's heaven. Simple Bible facts. Read the Bible and see for yourself.

Blessings on letting the Lord transform you into the person who will be welcomed into God's eternal home.
