BAHAMAS

One of those rare destinations that actually gets easier to book last minute instead of harder, the Bahamas checks a lot of boxes that make spontaneous travel rewarding. It's not only super close to many U.S. cities with one-hour flight from most of Florida, but many destinations offer direct flights, especially to Nassau and Freeport. The best part about the Bahamas as a getaway is that the islands offer a wide range of experiences from popular, touristy destinations like Nassau to more hidden gems like Bimini, Exuma and Eleuthera. Whatever your travel preference, you'll find it in the Bahamas.

LOS CABOS

Another destination that's easy to get to with direct flights from many U.S. cities is Los Cabos in Baja, California, Mexico. Yes, it's often considered a party town, but depending on where you stay and what you do, it doesn't have to be.

The destination is an excellent last-minute vacation spot as it combines accessibility, stunning beaches and an impressive resort infrastructure with a huge selection of all-inclusive and boutique hotels, many offering last-minute deals or discounted packages.

The dramatic desert meets the ocean landscape provides many options for vacationers, especially those who love the water. Snorkeling, diving, kayaking and deep-sea fishing are popular. There are calm beaches and others that offer surfing opportunities, and sunset cruises are awe-inspiring. Dining varies from beach bars and casual dives to farm-to-table venues and oceanfront luxury settings. The phrase "there's something for everyone" carries a lot of meaning here.

NEW ORLEANS

The Big Easy as it's often called, is a great choice for a last-minute getaway because it delivers a full, memorable experience without requiring much planning. It's a place where once visitors choose their method of transportation and book their choice of accommodation, the rest can be figured out once you're settled in. With a wide range of hotels, from boutique to big chains, it's easy to nab a booking.

There is the never-ending energy of Bourbon Street and the French Quarter with its jazz bands, street performers, and festivals, along with incredible Cajun and Creole and Southern-inspired cuisine. But visitors will find also the culture of its museums, history and architecture, along with the quieter ambience of the picturesque Garden District.
