BALTIMORE — Randy Arozarena hit a two-run homer to lead off the 10th inning and the Seattle Mariners beat the Baltimore Orioles 6-5 on Tuesday night.

Mitch Garver also homered for the AL West-leading Mariners, who have won 11 of their last 14 games and at 36-32 are tied for a season-high four games over .500.

Coby Mayo homered during a two-run ninth-inning as Baltimore rallied to tie the game at 4-4. The Orioles have lost four in a row for the first time since a five-game skid from April 30 to May 4.

Arozarena hit Rico Garcia's 0-1 slider over the wall in right for his seventh home run of the season to bring around automatic runner Julio Rodriguez. Garcia (3-1) had allowed only three runs in 27 innings this season.

Seattle's Nick Davila, called up from Triple-A Tacoma, hit Blaze Alexander and yielded Leody Taveras' RBI single to open the 10th. Mayo popped out, and third baseman Patrick Wisdom threw out Alexander at home. Davila then struck out O'Neill for his first career save.

DODGERS 12, PIRATES 3

PITTSBURGH — Andy Pages hit a two-run homer and added a sacrifice fly during a seventh-inning outburst against Pittsburgh's bullpen as the Dodgers quickly pulled away once Pirates ace Paul Skenes exited in a win.

Skenes, the reigning NL Cy Young winner, allowed two runs and struck out seven in six innings. He retired Los Angeles star Shohei Ohtani all three times he faced the four-time MVP, getting Ohtani to ground out twice and fanning him once in his best start in nearly a month.

Dalton Rushing led off the seventh with a single off Wilber Dotel (1-0), advanced to third on a single through the hole by Alan Freeland and scored the go-ahead run when Pirates catcher Henry Davis' attempt to pick Rushing off third hit the Dodger catcher instead and rolled away.

Things only got better for Los Angeles. Ohtani followed with an RBI-double and Pages hit his fourth home run in 12 career games against the Pirates to make it 6-2. A throwing error by Pirates second baseman Brandon Lowe, a couple of bases-loaded walks, and Freddie Freeman's 2,500th career hit — a sharp RBI-single to center — highlighted the rest of Los Angeles' biggest inning since an 11-run outburst against St. Louis on June 2, 2021.

Will Klein (2-2) picked up the win in relief of starter Eric Laurer, who allowed two runs in 5 2/3 innings.

RAYS 4, RED SOX 3

TORONTO — Nick Martinez gave up six hits over seven innings, Ben Williamson and Nick Fortes hit RBI doubles, and Tampa Bay held on to beat Boston.

Martinez (6-2) allowed three runs while striking out two. Kevin Kelly added a hitless eighth, and Bryan Baker pitched the ninth for his 18th save.

Ryan Vilade had three hits and scored the Rays' first run in the fourth inning. Williamson and Fortes each had two hits, and Tampa Bay managed 12 overall while going 5 for 10 with runners in scoring position.

ton Tolle (3-3) went six innings, allowing nine hits and four runs while striking out three. His streak of eight consecutive starts with three or fewer runs allowed came to an end.

Isiah Kiner-Falefa was 2 for 3 with two runs and Marcelo Mayer drove in two runs with an eighth-inning double that pulled Boston within 4-3.

The Red Sox threatened to tie the game in the eighth but Kelly entered and forced three straight groundouts to escape the inning.

MARLINS 10, DIAMONDBACKS 6

MIAMI — Otto Lopez hit a tiebreaking RBI single to start off Miami's four-run eighth inning and Joe Mack went 4 for 4 and scored three runs as the Marlins beat Arizona for their sixth win in seven games.

Lopez's run-scoring single started a four-hit sequence in the eighth. Javier Sanoja drove in two more runs with a single and Esteuiry Ruiz followed with a one-run single as the Marlins broke open a 6-all tie.

Mack, at 22 years, 164 days, became the youngest catcher in Marlins history to record four hits in a game. He also became the 13th MLB catcher with 10 runners caught stealing this season — doing so in just 28 games.

Miami jumped out to an early 3-1 lead behind a Xavier Edwards RBI single in the first, a Connor Norby one-run double in the second and a sacrifice fly from Edwards in the third. Liam Hicks and Kyle Stowers added two-run doubles in the sixth for a 6-2 lead.

Pete Fairbanks (1-1) threw a one-hit ninth inning, striking out two.

YANKEES 3, GUARDIANS 2

CLEVELAND — Jazz Chisholm Jr. homered leading off the eighth inning and New York defeated Cleveland.

Spencer Jones also went deep with his first major league home run for the Yankees, who have won three straight and are 10-4 since May 24.

Cleveland's Angel Martinez had two hits and an RBI. The Guardians have dropped three straight and five of six. They are also 2-6 in their last eight home games.

Chisholm once again used one of Aaron Judge's bats and drove a full-count slider from reliever Tim Herrin (0-2) into the right-field stands to put the Yankees on top. It was his third homer in his last six games.

Chisholm led off the second with a walk before Jones, the 25th overall pick in the 2022 amateur draft, connected on starter Slade Cecconi's cutter down the middle of the plate and drove it 443 feet over the center-field wall.

The Yankees' bullpen pitched five scoreless innings. Camilo Doval (2-0) got the win. Fernando Cruz walked the leadoff hitter in the ninth before striking out the next three for his first save.

BLUE JAYS 3, PHILLIES 2

TORONTO — Brandon Valenzuela hit a game-winning single in the ninth inning and Toronto scored twice off Jhoan Duran to beat Philadelphia.

Duran (1-3) blew a save opportunity for the first time this season after starting 16 for 16.

Jesús Sánchez reached on an infield single to start the ninth and was replaced by Myles Straw. Yohendrick Piñango followed with a single, sending Straw to third. Daulton Varsho replaced Piñango and stole second before Straw scored the tying run on a wild pitch, with Varsho advancing to third. Valenzuela lined the next pitch into left field to score Varsho.

Sánchez also homered off Zack Wheeler, his seventh.

Toronto's rally came after Bryson Stott gave Philadelphia the lead with an RBI double in the top of the ninth.

CARDINALS 7, METS 0

NEW YORK — Alec Burluson homered and finished with three RBIs on Tuesday night, powering surging St. Louis to a victory over New York.

Dustin May tossed six solid innings to snap a seven-start winless streak for the Cardinals, who have won five straight games — one shy of their season high.

JJ Westerholt's two-run double against Freddy Peralta (4-5) sparked a four-run third. Jordan Walker had an RBI double and Lars Nootbaar added a run-scoring groundout later in the inning.

Burluson hit a two-run shot to left field in the fifth before lacing an RBI double off Joey Gerber in the seventh. The three-RBI game was the fifth this season for Burluson, who entered Tuesday tied for seventh in the NL in RBIs.

ROYALS 5, RANGERS 3

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Jac Caglianone went 3 for 3 with two home runs and three RBIs as Kansas City erased an early deficit to defeat Texas.

Caglianone, who missed Kansas City's previous game with right shoulder soreness, ended Nathan Eovaldi's no-hit bid with a leadoff homer in the fifth inning that sailed into the right-field bullpen.

In the sixth, Caglianone drove reliever Jalen Beeks' first-pitch changeup 431 feet to right-center for a two-run shot that gave the Royals a 5-2 lead.

It was Caglianone's second multihomer game in the majors; he also hit a pair against the Rangers on June 19, 2025, the first two home runs of his career.

The Royals got five extra-base hits in a four-run sixth.

Steven Cruz (1-2) retired all four batters he faced, striking out two to earn the win. Alex Lange fanned two in a hitless ninth for his fourth save this season, all in the last six Royals games.

TIGERS 10, TWINS 4

DETROIT — Dillon Dingler had two homers among his four hits and drove in four runs Tuesday night, leading the Detroit Tigers to a 10-4 win over the Minnesota Twins.

Dingler had a solo homer in the first and a three-run shot in the sixth to raise his team-leading total to 16. He added a double and single and scored three runs.

Kerry Carpenter hit a go-ahead two-run home run in the fifth as the teams combined for eight homers in the game. Riley Greene homered and drove in two runs as the Tigers won for the sixth time in seven games. Gleyber Torres drove in two runs with a single.

Tigers starter Troy Melton (3-0) allowed eight hits and four runs in five innings, and struck out five.

Josh Bell hit his 200th career homer for the Twins. Byron Buxton opened the game with his team-high 19th homer on the first pitch after missing the Twins' previous two games after injuring his right shoulder while crashing into the wall against Kansas City on Friday.

Brooks Lee and Kody Clemens each added solo homers for Minnesota, which has lost five of its last six. Twins starter Taj Bradley (5-3) gave up seven hits and five runs in 4 1/3 innings.

The start of the game was delayed an hour and 51 minutes by inclement weather.

Lee and Clemens homered on consecutive pitches to give Minnesota a 4-3 lead in the fifth. The Tigers regained the lead in the bottom half on Carpenter's two-run shot.

Dingler's two-run shot off Taylor Rogers with two out extended the Tigers' lead to 8-4 in the sixth. Torres' two-run single in the seventh helped Detroit reach double digits in runs for the fourth time this season.

WHITE SOX 6, BRAVES 5

CHICAGO — Braden Montgomery hit a two-run homer in the 10th inning of his rousing major league debut to rally the Chicago White Sox past the Atlanta Braves 6-5 on Tuesday night.

Miguel Vargas launched a two-run shot in the third to begin Chicago's comeback from a 4-0 deficit against the Braves, who have the best record in the majors at 45-22. Montgomery made it 4-3 with an RBI single in the fourth, and Jacob Gonzalez tied it with a run-scoring single in the seventh.

The second-place White Sox (35-31) moved within a half-game of scuffling Cleveland atop the AL Central. They are 17-3 in their last 20 home games.

Matt Olson homered twice in the first three innings for Atlanta, accounting for three runs. Star outfielder Ronald Acuña Jr. exited in the fourth with left hamstring tightness, but Mauricio Dubón put the Braves up 5-4 in the top of the 10th with an RBI single.

With two outs in the bottom half, Montgomery connected on an 0-1 changeup from closer Raisel Iglesias (0-1) and drove it 343 feet over the left-field wall to send the Rate Field crowd into a frenzy.

Automatic runner Andrew Benintendi scored from third base ahead of Montgomery, who was called up earlier in the day from Triple-A Charlotte and got his first career hit when he singled in the fourth.

The 23-year-old switch-hitting outfielder was selected 12th overall by Boston in the 2024 amateur draft from Texas A&M and acquired by the White Sox that December along with three other players in a blockbuster trade for ace left-hander Garrett Crochet.

Grant Taylor (2-0) allowed just an unearned run in two innings for the win.

ROCKIES 7, CUBS 3

DENVER — Hunter Goodman hit a two-run homer in the first inning to spark the offense and the Colorado Rockies broke a four-game skid with a 7-3 win over the Chicago Cubs on Tuesday night.

The All-Star catcher has five homers in June. Ezequiel Tovar also homered for Colorado, while Edouard Julien drove in three runs.
