like junior Merrick Joska and senior Valor Smith, Haley said, OHS had to find different ways to score — sparked by Alexander's early effort.

"He really gave us a cushion to kind of relax," Haley said. "He did phenomenal in the position. Whether we have to do that in the future or not, time will tell. But, overall, I thought our back line (Miles Morrison, Brian Payne) did well. We minimized them to four total shots. Our goalies didn't have to work very hard tonight, and a lot of credit goes to the defense.

"The midfield did extremely well; Kennedy Payne in the middle of the pack without his regular guys. He was in the midfield with Peter, who usually plays in one of the top three spots. He was in there with a rotation of Luke Wilborn and Musa Iddi, and those guys were just rotating."

Haley also credited freshman Joseph Enpieng, who started the second half at left wing.

"Huge, huge, massive help from him tonight," Haley added. "He's going to definitely see more time in the future."

OHS will get a reprieve over Labor Day to heal up before playing at Greenwood on Tuesday. In the meantime, Haley's been pleased with the squad's younger players finding a way to contribute.

"The injury bug's bit us a little bit, but we have guys stepping up," Haley said. "We went into Warren Central Tuesday night without these guys as well, and we were able to escape that game with just a 1-0 deficit.

"They're getting time and exposure that they would not have gotten if we had everyone we expected to have this season. And who reaps the benefit of that? Those guys going in. I really like what we're doing this season. Having a blast with the kids, and we'll see where it takes us."

Apollo plays again Saturday with a trip to face Meade County.
