now, so that was not great today,” Brohm said. “I didn’t think we performed very good during the spring (Red-White) game, which was disappointing. We’ve added quite a few pieces, more than we’ve ever had, so we’ve got to just work our way through it. The consistency of kicking the ball in extra points, field goals, kickoffs, and the consistency of punting the ball has to get better. We’ve talked about that a lot and we’ve got to spend some time on it. We’ve got around four weeks to get it right.” One month after the spring game, Brohm signed Rhode Island transfer Garth White, who connected on 14-of-18 field goals last season, with a long of 54 yards. He was 2-for-2 at 50-plus yards, 5-7 on 40-49 yards and averaged 60.4 yards on 79 kickoffs, with 26 touchbacks. He is competing with redshirt senior Nick Keller and redshirt freshman Carson Hilbert. Keller set the program record with a 57-yard field goal against Bowling Green last year and matched it against Pitt. He also had 54 touchbacks on 74 kicks. Hilbert was a First Team All-State punter and kicker for Trinity’s 2024 state champions. He hit 12-of-14 field goals, including a school record 55-yarder, was 47-of-48 on extra points, and averaged 43.2 yards per punt. The Cards will open the season Sept. 6 in Nashville against the Rebels, who advanced to the College Football Playoff semifinals last year. The Rebels are ranked No. 10 in the preseason Top-25 Coaches poll. They are 14th in ESPN’s Football Power Index ratings. Brohm thinks that formidable challenge should motivate the Cards to be at their best throughout fall camp.

“I like where we’re at,” Brohm said. “I think our guys know what’s ahead of us. Great schedule, tremendous opener, great opportunity to kind of see exactly where we stand. So you know, because of that, I think we’ll have a good camp. We’ll work hard and we’ve got to really hone in on the details.” The Rebels are ranked No. 10 in the preseason Top-25 Coaches poll. They are 14th in ESPN’s Football Power Index (FPI) ratings with a projected win-loss record of 7.3-4.8 and a 22.5% chance of making the CFP. The Cards are unranked by the coaches, five points behind No. 25 Missouri. They are

Playoff quarterfinals. Four starters return, but more than one position might have a new starter when the Buckeyes open the season at home against Ball State on Sept. 5. Austin Siereveld, who started at left tackle last season, was at right guard Thursday to allow the

Montgomery and right tackle Phillip Daniels in the starting lineup, but others are also likely to get a look this month, including Joshua Padilla at guard.
