

HARDIN

Trae Martin also ratcheted up his play by breaking through tackles and stiff-arming a Seneca defender on his way to a 40-yard touchdown run.

That play seemed to break open the game for the Bulldogs, with the PAT and a field goal at the end of the third making it 23-6 for the home team.

Lunsford redeemed his interception after throwing a beautiful ball 20 yards to the endzone that landed perfectly in senior Crishan Whitehead’s hands. With eight minutes left in the game, John Hardin led 29-6 following the missed PAT.

This was the second-ever start for the quarterback and his first on the road, but Lunsford’s passing skills were on full display Saturday night.

“I just wanted to come out here and start 2-0,” Lunsford said. “Each week, I want to build upon what I did the week before, and I feel like I’m getting more and more comfortable with each play.”

A 31-yard field goal made it 32-6 in the final three minutes. The Bulldogs’ defense locked down Seneca through much of the second half, but the home team was able to find the endzone one last time to make it 32-12 right before the final horn sounded.

Head Coach Jeremy Harness was not happy about the final Redhawks’ score and the pass defense, but he was overall pleased with the 20-point win.

“We didn’t finish the game like we wanted to,” Harness said. “We got to work on playing the deep ball in the deep area. But other than that, I thought we came out and played like how we knew we should.”

Harness said that every game is a learning experience and that his team will work to get better every week.

"We've got to go back, watch the film and just start back over," Harness said. "There's a lot of things from this game we'll learn from. We've just got to learn from our mistakes and come out better next week."

John Hardin looks to start their season 3-0 with a home bout against Bardstown at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

INDUCTION

wife’s presentation of the 272nd Hall of Famer.

Federer was inducted along with Mary Carillo, a broadcaster and former player, who was presented by Hall of Famer Billie Jean King.

Federer, called the “Swiss Maestro” during the Hall’s first red-carpet show, which began on center court about 90 minutes before the start of the induction ceremony, told the crowd that he “was a little stressed to be honest.”

During his nearly 30-minute speech, Federer, who showed fluid movement and a quick approach to the net with a solid one-hand backhand that earned him a record 237 consecutive weeks as the world’s No. 1 player in the ATP rankings, choked up a handful of times.

It began to get tough for him about halfway through, when he talked about his childhood hero, Stefan Edberg, when he said these are “happy tears.”

Then he was brought to tears again when he spoke about his longtime coach Severin Luthi, before he wanted to thank Mirka for helping him on his journey.

“Now the Mirka part,” he said, pausing before breaking into tears. “Oh gosh, this such a mess.”

He tried to joke, but the tears took over like a quick return at the net.

“I need tissues and sunglasses, everything to protect me right now,” he told the crowd, fighting back more tears.

But, like rallying in winning one of his five consecutive U.S. Open titles from 2004-08 or reaching 10 straight Slam finals, which he won eight, Federer closed by thanking the ball boys and encouraged players to keep taking the game new levels.

Federer, who celebrated his 45th birthday three weeks ago, won eight Wimbledon titles and is only one of eight men with a career Grand Slam. He captured six Australian Opens and one French Open, in 2009.

“I’m thrilled to have made the journey here,” he said. “It’s amazing to see yourself in a place like this. To immerse yourself in the history of the sport means a lot to me.”

Carillo, inducted as a contributor, is a member of the Sports Broadcasting Hall of Fame.

King said: “She has earned her spot in sports journalism and she has earned her spot in Newport.”

Carillo, 69, was touched standing in front of a handful of Hall of Famers.

“To walk through these gates here in the company of you people, that was beyond my dreams,” she said.
