

Madison Theatre presents musical 'Bright Star' this weekend

BY BOB DEMAREE
PAXTON MEDIA GROUP

MADISON, IND. — Madison Consolidated High School's Madison Theatre will be performing the musical "Bright Star" this weekend at Opal Sherman Auditorium.

It's a story set after World War II in 1945 and 1946 with flashbacks to 1923 that Sophia Reilmann describes as "two storylines that are told the whole show that collide at the end."

Owain Kelsey said, "It's definitely a show that you put together while you're watching it."

Reilmann, a junior, performs the role of Alice Murphy in two different age ranges — ages 16-17 and 36-37. In the younger version, she is looking to break out of small-town life and experience the world. In the older version, she is editor of a southern literary magazine.

Kelsey, a junior, is playing Jimmy Ray Dobbs, the son of the mayor who is being groomed by his father for a similar future impacted by life's events.

Others in the cast include Adavious Gigax as Billy Cane,
