charges and posted a $50,000 bond, with release conditions that he not have contact with children or access to a computer or the internet.

More recently, Parkin was arrested and later indicted on second-degree terroristic threatening, unlawful possession of a weapon on school property, operating motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol, first offense; and alcohol intoxication in a public place charges after allegedly brandishing a handgun in the parking lot of Trimble County JR/SR High School on Sept. 29, putting that building on lockdown near the end of the school day.

According to an arrest citation, Parkin tried to open the school's doors while holding the gun at around 3:20 p.m. after students had been dismissed for the day.

A staff member, later identified as Christine Lake, was leaving the building when Parkin pulled the gun on her. She called 911 and students who were still inside the building were quickly moved away from the area and the doors locked. Parkin never made it inside the building and police arrived about 3 minutes later and took him into custody without incident.

The investigations are ongoing. Parkin is currently lodged in the Oldham County Detention Center. A preliminary hearing has been scheduled for Nov. 17.
