over Muhlenberg County on May 4 at MCHS. Muhlenberg County captured the 2025 district softball championship.

In baseball action, second-seeded Muhlenberg County, 13-10 overall and 2-2 in district play, faced third-seeded Ohio County, 17-13 overall and 1-3 in district games, Monday night. Top-seeded McLean County, 22-11 overall and 3-1 in district play, awaited Monday's winner in Tuesday's championship game.

Muhlenberg County's baseball team also entered the tournament as the defending district champion.

BBB May Hot Topics

1. A consumer reported an employment scam to BBB that cost them $5,000. They purchased equipment for their new position, believing the company would reimburse them, but both job and company were a scam. BBB warns consumers to research companies first before applying for jobs, and to be wary of any job offers that sound too good to be true.

2. A consumer was almost scammed out of $1,280 by a phony Facebook customer service call center. Facebook and its parent company Meta do not have a generic public phone number for customer service. Meta will never ask users for passwords, payment details, or other sensitive information over phone, text, chat, or email.

3. A scam company called Evercrest Express is the latest reshipping scam to target area consumers. BBB reminds consumers that there are no legitimate work-from-home jobs that involve receiving other people's mail at your home for inspection purposes.

4. A consumer reported a plant scam to BBB that is similar to the common puppy scam. After ordering a plant through a Facebook ad, the consumer was contacted by the company and informed
