

Fordsville prepares for annual Fordsville Days

FORDSVILLE — The town of Fordsville is getting spruced up ahead of the 37th annual Fordsville Days, set for Friday and Saturday, Sept. 18-19. Charles Mattingly and Brad Layne recently helped clean up around town in preparation for the weekend.

Activities will include vendors, food, mini golf, live music, pedal tractor pulls, a tractor show, car show and silent auction. The city-wide Highway 54 yard sales will begin Thursday, Sept. 17.

Fordsville Days began in 1990 as a fundraiser for the Fordsville Depot Museum. For more information, contact coordinator Connie Layne at 270-256-3934.
