coached me. I hope them nothing but all the success in the world. I hope that's true for Sam, that he has a pride and respect as he's in Louisville's locker room, like 'I played at South Oldham. I loved my time there. I grew and developed as a player, as a person,' and he's grateful for his time. That's my hope for him is that he's just very appreciative and understands the pride that he got to wear Dragons on his chest."

Dawson wants the younger guys and anyone coming through South Oldham to understand that it's possible to play D1 football.

"Nothing's impossible.

You can do it, because I know South isn't the biggest school," Dawson said. "We don't get the craziest publicity, like Trinity and all these other schools, but knowing that you can make it out of here, you can go play ball somewhere. It doesn't have to be D1. It can be D2, NAIA and D3 is possible. There is a chance at that next level for sure, so I wouldn't hang your head on it. If you're struggling right now, people aren't looking at you. You have time, just lock in, focus and grind. It'll come up for sure."
