Hooked on Westport fries up friendship, fundraises over $3K

BY ERA STAFF

Westport's longtime fish fry tradition returned this fall in the form of Hooked on Westport, a new community event to celebrate and raise funds for the Westport Fire Department, ending the day with a total of $3,100.

The day began with a bass-fishing tournament on the Ohio River, and continued with an antique car show, live band and community fish fry. The event also showcases recent riverfront improvements, including the new playground and covered pavilion at Schamback Park, as well as the newly-renovated river docks.

Organizers say Oldham County resident Keith Bibelhauser with USA Bassin made the bass tournament possible, as he generously provided his personal fish friers to help keep first-year expenses down. Overall, the event was a community effort, with volunteers pitching in throughout the event:

Members of Westport Methodist Church and Westport Baptist Church donated homemade, coordinated by Lucy Lucas; Knock on Wood Mercantile & Café donated homemade coleslaw; and Westport Fire Department volunteers staffed the fish fry under the direction of Board Chair Will Hancock. Will's wife, Catrina Hancock, supplied home-cooked green beans, while Lucas and Oldham County Tourism Executive Director Kim Hydes tried their hands at making homemade hushpuppies for the first time.

Organizers say that the greatest success of the event was not only the money raised, but also seeing a community tradition come back to life with the people of Westport at the heart of it all.
