SERVICE ABOVE SELF

Following the Oct. 9th meeting, members of the South Oldham Rotary Club rolled up their sleeves to help improve the Hope Health Clinic by volunteering their time to paint the clinic's foyer. The project is one of many community service efforts undertaken by the Rotary Club as part of its commitment to serving Oldham County.

The Hope Health Clinic, which provides medical care and support services to those uninsured in need, will be offering a public tour on Friday, Nov. 6. These tours provide an excellent opportunity for community members to get a behind-the-scenes look at the clinic's operations and learn more about the valuable services it provides.

Service above self is a guiding principle of Rotary, and SORC say they actively support numerous community initiatives throughout the year. Members assist with the annual food basket distribution through the Mission House and participate in programs such as Blessings in a Backpack. The club also hosts community events including Bingo, Bourbon & Wine and the popular Free Picnic in the Park.

For more information about the South Oldham Rotary Club membership and what the Rotary does for the community, visit www.southoldhamrotary.com, or find them on Facebook.
