to force a Lady Cat timeout.

Owen County continued to pressure Henry County and force a few additional turnovers later in the period.

The Lady Rebels utilized a steal for another layup with 2:09 on the clock to extend the lead to 11-4.

About a minute later, Steffen connected on a wing 3-pointer to push the advantage to double digits before Hannah Mason dropped in a layup and Elliott sank a layup at the buzzer to put Owen County in front 18-4.

Taylor Lawrey, who had all four Henry County points in the first quarter, ended the Lady Cats' scoring drought with a free throw at the 6:18 mark in the second quarter.

However, turnovers continued to hamper Henry County, allowing Owen County to stay in control.

The Lady Cats bounced back, though, near the middle of the period with a three from Morgan McElfresh and two free throws.

Yet, Steffen replied with a 3-pointer and Salem Drennen sidestepped a defender for a layup to bring the Lady Rebels' lead back out to 15.

Henry County hit two layups shortly after, but Addyson Kingkade gave Owen County a 27-14 lead at halftime with a right side layup.

In the second half, the Lady Cats opened with a layup before Owen County rattled off a 6-0 run.

The Lady Rebels attacked the basket for a putback, sustained a play with an offensive board and hit a free throw after a steal during the mini scoring streak.

Steffen came up with a crucial 3-pointer with a minute remaining, but Henry County kept fighting to move back within 14 by the end of the third quarter.

Henry County limited Owen County to nine points in the fourth quarter, including three layups by Elliott and Dempsey.

However, the Lady Rebels stayed the course defensively to hold the Lady Cats to seven points and finish the evening with a 16-point victory.

Elliott and Steffen had 13 points each to lead Owen County and Mason added seven points.
