Patton, Gognat play in Commonwealth Cup

BY ANN CARTER
CORRESPONDENT

Two Owen County Parks and Recreation soccer players recently represented their community as they joined with teams from Carroll County.

Kyle Patton and Maddox Gognat were selected to play with the Carroll County U12 Vikings at the Kentucky Commonwealth Cup in Elizabethtown. The Commonwealth Cup serves as the state championship tournament for Parks and Recreation soccer programs, bringing together teams from across Kentucky, including Bowling Green, Lexington, Louisville, Elizabethtown, Boyle County, and other communities to compete for the state title.

Patton and Gognat helped the Vikings put together an undefeated 4-0 tournament run. The team opened play with a 7-1 victory over EYSA, followed by a 3-1 win against Sawyer Youth Soccer Association. In game three, the Vikings defeated Georgetown FC Impact by a score of 5-1 to advance to the championship game.

The Vikings finished off the tournament by defeating Georgetown FC Crew 2-0 in the Gold Division championship match, bringing home the tournament title in the U12 division.

The championship team was coached by Angelitta Galiz-Zuniga and Maricela Martinez. For Patton and Gognat, the opportunity to compete alongside some of the region's top young players and return home with a state championship was a major accomplishment for both the players and the Owen County soccer community.
