DARK

place of solitude where union with God can be pursued:

"In the happy night, In secret, when none saw me,

Nor I beheld aught,

Without light or guide,

save that which burned in my heart."

We have entered the long dark of late autumn and winter. It is a time of year when some of us struggle with the darkness, but it is also a time of year for family gatherings and remembering the light of the birth of Jesus. Macbeth never emerged from the darkness because he wanted it to cover his evil deeds. St. John of the Cross entered it with hope because of the light that awaited on the other side.
