

Donate Life Kentucky Trust has new initiatives

Bullitt Circuit Clerk, Paulita Keith, is helping spread awareness of organ donation and transplantation by supporting two important Donate Life Kentucky Trust initiatives: student scholarships and the debut of Heart of the Motor: The Wyatt Eddy Story, a short documentary and curriculum designed for Kentucky classrooms.

Donate Life Kentucky Trust announced its annual scholarship program, which awards $20,000 in scholarships to Kentucky students who support the mission of organ donation in their communities. Students across the Commonwealth are encouraged to apply by the April 6, 2026 deadline.

In addition to scholarships, Donate Life Kentucky Trust has invested in licensing Heart of the Motor for use in all Kentucky high schools. This powerful, 40-minute film follows the true story of a California boy with Kentucky roots and his love for classic trucks that, after tragedy, would inspire his family's journey across the country. The story will inspire conversations about organ donation, transplantation, compassion, and the ripple effect one decision can have on many lives. "Through authentic storytelling rather than traditional lectures, this film creates an engaging learning experience that resonates with today's students," says Keith. "These programs help start important conversations and encourage students to think about the impact of generosity and service."

To ensure the educational approach is effective, classroom screenings of Heart of the Motor are paired with short pre- and post-tests to measure student understanding and shifts in perception around organ donation. The program's goal is to inspire 2,500 Kentucky students through this one-of-a-kind educational experience.

Circuit Clerks across Kentucky have played a vital role in public education and awareness around organ donation since founding the nonprofit organization in 1992. Their partnership and support help ensure communities have access to accurate information and meaningful opportunities to learn more about the Donate Life mission.

ABOUT DONATE LIFE KENTUCKY TRUST

Donate Life Kentucky Trust is a statewide nonprofit dedicated to saving and improving lives through organ, eye, and tissue donation. Founded in 1992 by Kentucky's Circuit Clerks, the Trust educates communities, grows the state's donor registry, and addresses the unmet needs of those impacted by donation and transplantation. Through statewide education, Donate Life Kentucky Trust works to strengthen public trust in donation and ensure more Kentuckians give the gift of life. The organization also serves as a trusted resource for transplant patients, caregivers, and donor families - offering financial assistance and community connections. Programs are supported through driver's license contributions, partnerships with the Kentucky Circuit Clerks, Kosair for Kids, and other generous contributors.
