

Best selling author Kate Quinn at BCPL

SHEPHERDSVILLE — Bullitt County Public Library (BCPL) will welcome New York Times and USA Today bestselling author Kate Quinn for a special after-hours Author Voices event on Saturday, April 25, from 6:00–8:30 PM at the Central Library in Shepherdsville.

Known for her richly researched historical fiction—including The Alice Network, The Rose Code, and The Briar Club—Quinn has captivated millions of readers with her compelling storytelling and unforgettable female characters. During this special appearance, she will discuss her writing journey and her newest novel, The Astral Library, a bold and imaginative turn into fantasy.

“We’re thrilled to welcome Kate Quinn to Bullitt County,” said Haleigh Wells, an event planner at Central Library. “Our Author Voices series highlights a wide range of writers, and we’re especially excited to continue expanding those opportunities by bringing nationally recognized authors to our community. Events like this give readers the chance to connect more deeply with the stories they love—and with the people who create them.”

The evening will include a moderated conversation, audience Q&A, and a book signing. Registered attendees will also receive a complimentary copy of The Astral Library while supplies last.

Registration is required, and space is limited. To learn more or reserve a seat, visit:

BCPL’s Author Voices series connects the community with acclaimed authors from a variety of genres, offering opportunities to explore literature, creativity, and the writing process firsthand. The series will continue through the spring with additional events featuring Kim Michele Richardson, author of The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek, on May 22, and David Dominé, author of A Dark Room in Glitter Ball City—recently adapted into an HBO true-crime documentary—on June
